

Caboose

Takes the end position in the line, ensuring all classmates are ahead and no one is left behind. Helps keep the line moving smoothly and remains quiet. Brings the clipboard to the different FAB classes and records the students who are absent on it. Picks up 15 items off the floor at the end of the day.

Script

[Scene 1: In the Classroom, Standing at the Back of an Imaginary Line]

Camera focuses on the student standing confidently with a clipboard in hand.

Student (with a sense of responsibility): "Hey there, classmates! I'm your class Caboose, the last car in our train of learning. Let's see what my job entails to keep everyone on track!"

[Scene 2: Taking the End Position in the Line]

Student (stepping to the back of the line): "As the Caboose, my main job is to take the end position in the line. I make sure all my classmates are ahead and nobody gets left behind. All aboard!"

Student pretends to look ahead, ensuring all imaginary classmates are in line.

[Scene 3: Keeping the Line Moving Smoothly]

Student (motioning forward): "While we're moving, it's my duty to help keep the line flowing smoothly and quietly. It's like being the conductor of a silent, efficient train."

Student gestures to encourage an invisible line to move forward, placing a finger to lips to signal quietness.

[Scene 4: Bringing the Clipboard to FAB Classes]

Student (holding the clipboard): "I also carry this important clipboard to our FAB classes. Here, I record any absent students to keep our teacher updated."

Student pretends to check off names on the clipboard.

[Scene 5: Picking Up Items Off the Floor]

Student: "And at the end of the day, I embark on a special mission – treasure hunting! I pick up 15 items from the floor, helping our classroom stay clean and organized."

Student bends down and pretends to pick up items, counting them with enthusiasm.

[Scene 6: Wrapping Up]

Student (with a sense of pride): "So, that's what being the Caboose is all about. It's not just about being last in line; it's about responsibility, care for our classmates, and helping our class run smoothly."

Student stands tall and confident.

Student: "Remember, in our class train, every car is important, and the Caboose ensures no one is left behind. Keep on track, and let's make every day a great journey! Caboose, signing off!"

The student waves goodbye as the video fades out.
