

Bison Have a Blast at Color Day

By Kayden Smith

On Saturday January 25, MHS held the Color Day dance, where many boys and girls danced and had a fun time hanging out together. All royalties held a competition in a vote between all candidates. The candidates included Ethan Schmidt, Sutton Labrie, Landon Kmoch, Gabe Gans, Kyson Barger, Reid Loop, Sydney Hodgson, Ruby Stone, Paige Bortner, Elizabeth Aguirre, Aubrey Rogers, and Megan Miller.

Congratulations to Ethan Schmidt and Ruby Stone on being pronounced King and Queen of the Color Day Dance! Alongside these two are their Prince and Princess, Landon Kmoch and Paige Bortner, and Sydney Hodgson and Sutton Labrie as the First Attendant to the Queen and King.

Ruby Stone and other students claim to enjoy Color Day for the sole purpose of spirit week that comes along with it. Ruby said that in the past not many underclassmen have dressed up, but she was proud this year because many underclassmen did so. She was happy to accessorize herself with a crown. Many other students enjoyed watching the crowning, where students showed up to the gym to watch the crowning following the basketball game. They also enjoyed the dance. The theme for this year's dance was clouds and everyone enjoyed dancing under the clouds for the night.
