

SL: Page Sales

Dear Chloe,

I want to offer you the chance to start your new year by selling many courses.

There are 5 specific aspects of your Lazy Investor Course sales page that you can tweak today to convince anyone who is struggling with their investments (like you used to) to buy your life-changing courses, and no, it's not changing the color or making the CTA bigger.

I guarantee that after implementation, you will get at least 21 Ultimate Lazy Bundle sales in January.

I'm an established copywriter with over 3 years of sales experience and I was coached by the best copywriter in the world - Andrew Bass. (See what the testimonial below thinks of my work)

In the meantime, you can use the Email Opt-In rewrite attached below to increase the members on your email list drastically.

If you're interested, you need to hurry and reply to this email so that we can schedule a meeting on any platform of your choosing. (My clients are preparing holiday campaigns and I have 2 more slots before I have a waiting list)
