

Edgenie Bellah is the Family Engagement Coordinator with the Texas Deafblind Project. She has the honor of partnering with Texas families with children who are Deaf/Hard of Hearing with vision issues (deafblind). Edgenie is very active in statewide and national family organizations. Through it all, her best teachers have been her family and friends who share the journey of living life with a disability. They keep her passionate about community and following family leaders in systems change efforts.