Blockchain Festival Vietnam Agenda & Speakers Announced for May 24-25

The world's leading blockchain asset financial services provider to host first Blockchain Festival in Vietnam

Vietnam – May 10, 2018 – Huobi.Pro, the world's fourth largest digital asset exchange, announced today the agenda and speakers for the 2018 Blockchain Festival in Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam on May 24-25.

Hosted by Huobi.Pro, the two-day Blockchain Festival will feature more than 30 speakers, including keynotes from Le Ngoc Giang (Ministry of Justice of Vietnam The Road Ahead for Vietnam Blockchain Industry) and Dr. David Nguyen (President of Vietnam Chamber of Commerce Singapore, Chairman of Regulus Investment & Capital Holdings).

Dr. Nguyen said, "Vietnam is becoming more and more important on the global blockchain map. As such, Vietnam needs more help from global leaders in the blockchain industry, like Huobi. We are grateful to Huobi for organizing 'Blockchain Festival Vietnam', which represents an important milestone for Vietnam's blockchain development. We hope that this festival will help to increase the awareness level to the public including the ICT businesses, students, and universities."

Attendees of Huobi.Pro's Blockchain Festival Vietnam will have the chance to meet blockchain industry leaders such as Loi Luu (Founder of Kyber Network), Larry Liu (Founder of Genaro Network), Li Pu (Chief Technology Officer of Achain), Mikhail Mironov (Head of Partnership at ICORating) and more.

Fueled by a young population with a high rate of smartphone usage and large batches of IT graduates each year, Vietnam has become one of the fastest growing economies. In Southeast Asia, Vietnam has been dubbed "the blockchain country to watch" because of the country's high-tech literacy and engineering resources. According to the World Economic Forum, Vietnam has ranked among the top 10 countries for producing engineering talent.

"Huobi organized the Blockchain Festival in Vietnam to bring industry knowledge, insight, and experts to one of the fastest growing markets in the blockchain and crypto landscape," said Wu Xing, Senior Director of Huobi.Pro. "There has been a surge in demand from the Vietnamese market and we hope that by opening up new opportunities here, we can have a positive impact on both the local economy and ecosystem."

The Blockchain Festival's 1,500+ attendees will descend upon the Gem Center, Vietnam's premier event venue with 10,000 square meters of conference and exhibition space. To view the full agenda, please visit <https://www.blockchainfestival.com/>.
