

The Witches Character Descriptions

BOY: A clever boy who learns about witches from his grandmother and ultimately defeats them. British accent preferred.

GRANDMOTHER: Boy's grandmother who is very kind but very sharp-witted. She is an expert on witches and teaches Boy how to avoid them. British/Irish/Swedish accent preferred.

BRUNO JENKINS: A boy at the hotel who loves to eat. He isn't very clever and has many opinions, especially about food. British accent preferred.

GRAND HIGH WITCH: The leader of all the witches in Britain. She is the most evil and most ugly witch of all and has a scheme to eliminate all the children in the world. Must be able to have an evil witch laugh and British accent is preferred.

MR. JENKINS: Bruno's dad. He is an important businessman and hates the idea of his son being a mouse. British accent preferred.

MRS. JENKINS: Bruno's mom. She is absolutely terrified of mice and doesn't know what to do when her son is turned into one. British accent preferred.

Characters with fewer lines:

Display Witch, Lawyer, Hotel Doorman, Head Waiter, Sailor, Doctor, Head Chef, Tree-House Witch, Frog, Nurse, Waitress, Waiter

Ensemble roles:

All of the witches on the council, background characters in various scenes throughout the show.