

#MaidenGate is a viral hashtag uncovering a peculiar type of abuse in our elections. Some married women vote in one state, under their current name, while someone—a political predator—casts a vote in that same state or a state which the woman previously lived under a previous or maiden name. This same technique may affect adopted persons, the divorced, people who changed their names and/or transgendered persons. The credit is owed to Lauren who discovered her mother was such a victim. Ali Alexander (video) independently verified claims like the one Lauren made are, in fact, true.

We are not looking for individuals who have registrations in multiple states. That's a problem but not this problem. We are not even looking for individuals who are registered multiple times in the same state. Again, a problem but not the scope of this problem. We are looking for individuals who voted in this election (or chose not to) but also had another vote cast in a previous legal name of theirs at an address they previously occupied.

Below you will find a list of states and links to check

1. Voter registration records
2. Ballot cast status (was a ballot cast in that name?)

➡ Think about anywhere you've previously lived, anywhere you've previously registered to vote (in another state or the same); and what last name were you using during each of those periods of time?

➡ What you must provide in order to file a complaint:

1. Screenshot proof of where you currently are registered to vote and did you vote in this election
2. Screenshot proof of your identity (be it under your name or a past name) registration in a place you no longer reside; and that a ballot was cast
3. You may be asked for a copy of your current identification or driver's license
4. If you are able to provide this evidence, you'll be asked to sign an affidavit, under penalty of perjury, attesting that you believe someone committed a crime against you and that you, yourself, did not commit this voter fraud

IF YOU DISCOVER THAT YOU OR SOMEONE YOU LOVE IS A VICTIM: Please, email stopthesteal@protonmail.com and/or reach out to Lauren. Time is running out.
