2022 Five College NAIS Symposium / NAISA Northeast Gathering
"Museums, Archives, Preservation, and Representation in the Northeast"
September 22-23

You will find below important logistical information. To view the complete Gathering schedule, please visit the FCI website.

A PC laptop will be available to show slides or files you wish to present during your panel. Please plan to arrive by 8:30 if you wish to test your presentation.

Bea's cell phone: 617-230-2683

SYMPOSIUM VENUES

Thursday, Sept. 22, 5:30-7pm | Opening Reception | Mount Holyoke Art Museum
Mt Holyoke College mandates masks during this event - See link

Address: Lower Lake Road
South Hadley, MA 01075

Friday, Sept. 23 | Symposium Programming | UMass Campus Center
UMass strongly encourages masks as the space is at capacity - See link
The planning committee also recommends masking (except when eating) to protect each other during this day-long gathering.

Address: UMass Campus Center, aka Hotel UMass
1 Campus Center Way, Amherst, MA 01003 (see below for driving directions)
Symposium location: Kwinitekw Room (aka the Amherst room), 10th Floor

Friday, Sept. 23 | Closing performance by Jennifer Kreisberg of the Native Women's Trio Ulali | Smith College
Smith College mandates masks for this event - See link

Address: Carroll Room in the Campus Center
10 Elm Street
Northampton, Massachusetts 01063

Directions and Parking to UMass Campus Center

GPS/Driving Directions:
Ask your GPS for directions to the "Mullins Center at UMass Amherst Massachusetts"

The entrance to the Hotel UMass is across from the Mullins Center on Commonwealth Avenue. Once on Commonwealth Avenue, follow the signs for Hotel UMass and park in the Hotel UMass parking lot. The Hotel UMass parking lot is always very full, so please allow for at least 15 minutes to park and arrive at the Symposium location on the 10th floor (Kwinitekw Room / Amherst room).

Your parking will be validated for the day tomorrow, Friday.

We look forward to welcoming you to the various events!

Best wishes,

Bea Cusin