Reading Comprehension

The Titanic was the biggest thing Grace had ever seen in her life. She stood by the harbor with her Auntie Nora, the two of them looking up at it. "Well, this is where we'll have to say goodbye," said Auntie Nora. They were near the bottom of some stairs that had been placed against the side of the ship. Many people were climbing the stairs to an open door halfway up. Grace could see tears in Auntie Nora's eyes. This was hard for them. Auntie Nora was Grace's mother's big sister, and she had taken Grace in at the age of five, after Grace's parents had died. She had been a mother to Grace, and they were very close.
