

Non-carceral Collective Care:

Call Blackline: 800-604-5841 - call or text

- Centers BI&POC, LGBTQ+ Black Femme Lens
- They also have an app free for download

Trans Lifeline: 877-565-8860 (US), 877-330-6366 (Canada)

- Run by and for Trans, Nonbinary, & BIPOC people

Wildflower Alliance Peer Support Line: 888-407-4515

- Trained peer supporters
- They have support services for folks local to New England, and online

StrongHearts Native Helpline: 844-762-8483

- Centering Native Americans & Alaska Natives
- Culturally responsive care
- Domestic Violence, Suicidal ideation

Thrive Lifeline: 313-662-8209

- Trans-led and operated
- Text "STRONG" to +1.313.662.8209, from anywhere in the world
- <https://strongerwellness.com/> - They also have a bunch of groups and virtual community spaces specializing in supporting folks navigating chronic Suicidal ideation, DID/Systems/Plurality, and Disability & Chronic Illness
- They have a more extensive resource on abolitionist, non-carceral support groups and services here.

LGBT National Help Center: 888-843-4564

- Helplines specifically for Elders and Youth as well as general support
- Coming Out support
- Teen Chat communities
- Live online chat

Don't Call the Police / Who Can I Call - @WhoCanICall

- Collective care resources by community / geographic location
- Resources organized by city

Liberatory Wellness Network - (not a warmline)

- Directory of providers
- Resources for abolitionist and non-carceral mental health & wellness
- Peer groups & Community Workshops
- Consulting for Providers

Other resources for folks who need help finding safer states to flee to: _____

InReach.org - Free app and website connects people with medical, housing, legal, transportation for LGBTQ+ fleeing unsafe states

RainbowRailroad.org - Support for LGBTQ+ fleeing unsafe states

StandInPride.org - Free app to connect with allies and LGBTQ+ in your region, connect in community, collective care