DEPARTMENT EVALUATION COMMITTEES POLICY

Membership: A Department Evaluation Committee shall be composed of three tenured elected faculty, two of whom must be at the rank of Professor and the third shall be a Professor or an Associate Professor who is not presently being considered for promotion. Annually, the members of the department shall nominate and elect committee members from within the department or from related academic disciplines. The list of nominations shall be publicly posted in the department as they are received. If, after nominations are closed, there are two or more candidates per position from within the department nominations will not be accepted for persons outside of the department. The call for nominations shall run for at least five working days. A member of a department evaluation committee cannot serve concurrently as a member of a College Evaluation Committee or the University Evaluation Committee, but may serve concurrently on other department evaluation committees.

Functions: This committee shall conduct performance reviews at the departmental level as well as periodic evaluations.

COLLEGE/OTHER EVALUATION COMMITTEE POLICY

COLLEGE EVALUATION COMMITTEE

Membership (composition): A College Evaluation Committee shall be composed of four tenured full time senior faculty members. At least three shall hold the rank of Professor and one may be an Associate Professor who is not presently being considered for promotion. Department Chairs or Associate Deans may not serve on this committee. Members shall be elected to staggered two year terms by the faculty of the college. In the case of College committees, no more than one member may come from a single department unless there are too few departments in that college. If there are too few departments in that college, at least one member should come from each department.

Functions: This committee shall conduct performance review at the College level as well as periodic evaluations for tenured faculty who have not been considered for promotion during the past five years.

LIBRARY EVALUATION COMMITTEE (FSD 85-187v2.R10)

Membership: The Library Evaluation Committee shall be composed of three elected tenured members, two of whom must be at the rank of Librarian and the third, Associate Librarian or Librarian. Library Evaluators may serve on this committee but must withdraw whenever a librarian they evaluate is evaluated. The committee shall elect a chair who shall hold the rank of Librarian. In the event of insufficient eligible/willing members to serve on the Library Evaluation Committee, the Library shall elect members from other academic discipline(s). Such election shall take place by assembling a panel of eligible members from among whom the necessary members shall be chosen. A member of this committee shall not serve concurrently as a member of the University Evaluation Committee.

Functions: This committee shall conduct performance review at the Library level as well as periodic evaluations.

SSP, AR EVALUATION COMMITTEE (FSD 85-187v3.R10)
