

For years, a grand entity has manifested, spreading care and love in its wake;
A guardian, a goddess, a mother that nurtured the good in us for our sakes.

This Christmas we honor this entity with all that we can give,
As our hearts blossom with joy and passion with every day that we live,
For this being of light shows us the path that only we can follow;
She teaches us to rejoice and embrace and not to wallow.

Now and forevermore, we shall cherish this loving being:
Eukara Vox—guide, muse, and mentor in meaning.
Although she has many names, we all shall always know her by none,
For nothing could ever hope to describe all the good that she has become...

Euky, you are and have always been a great inspiration for us all,
Even in times of conflict, pain, despair, and anything else we could recall;
Thus, we humbly beseech you now in this time of great joy,
To accept this offering, although it is of less material than a toy...

A gift, for our beloved goddess that no words could possibly describe...
A wish, for our dear teacher who knows more than any scribe...

We wish you a safe, happy and merry Christmas that you will always fondly recollect,
With your family and friends and anyone else that would make your memory perfect.

Thank you for everything that you have done and will continue to do, no matter who you happened to be:
Ascerai, Delimy, Garesse, Moravion, Nephanie, Nylsa, Passiphe, Schuyllar, Sorben, Tajna, Valkyrie, and Vinde!
