DISCLAIMER !! ; Raya is my original character from the Sonic community .

Raya is an anamorphic hedgehog mixed with Chao genetics , known to be the lone hero of her dimension Cuarzo Rosa . She came from a Latin world that is a diverse community that is similar to the Southern part of America . Raya wasn’t always the hues of a wilted rose for her natural color was hues of pastel blue and yellow, having the wings of a hero chao.

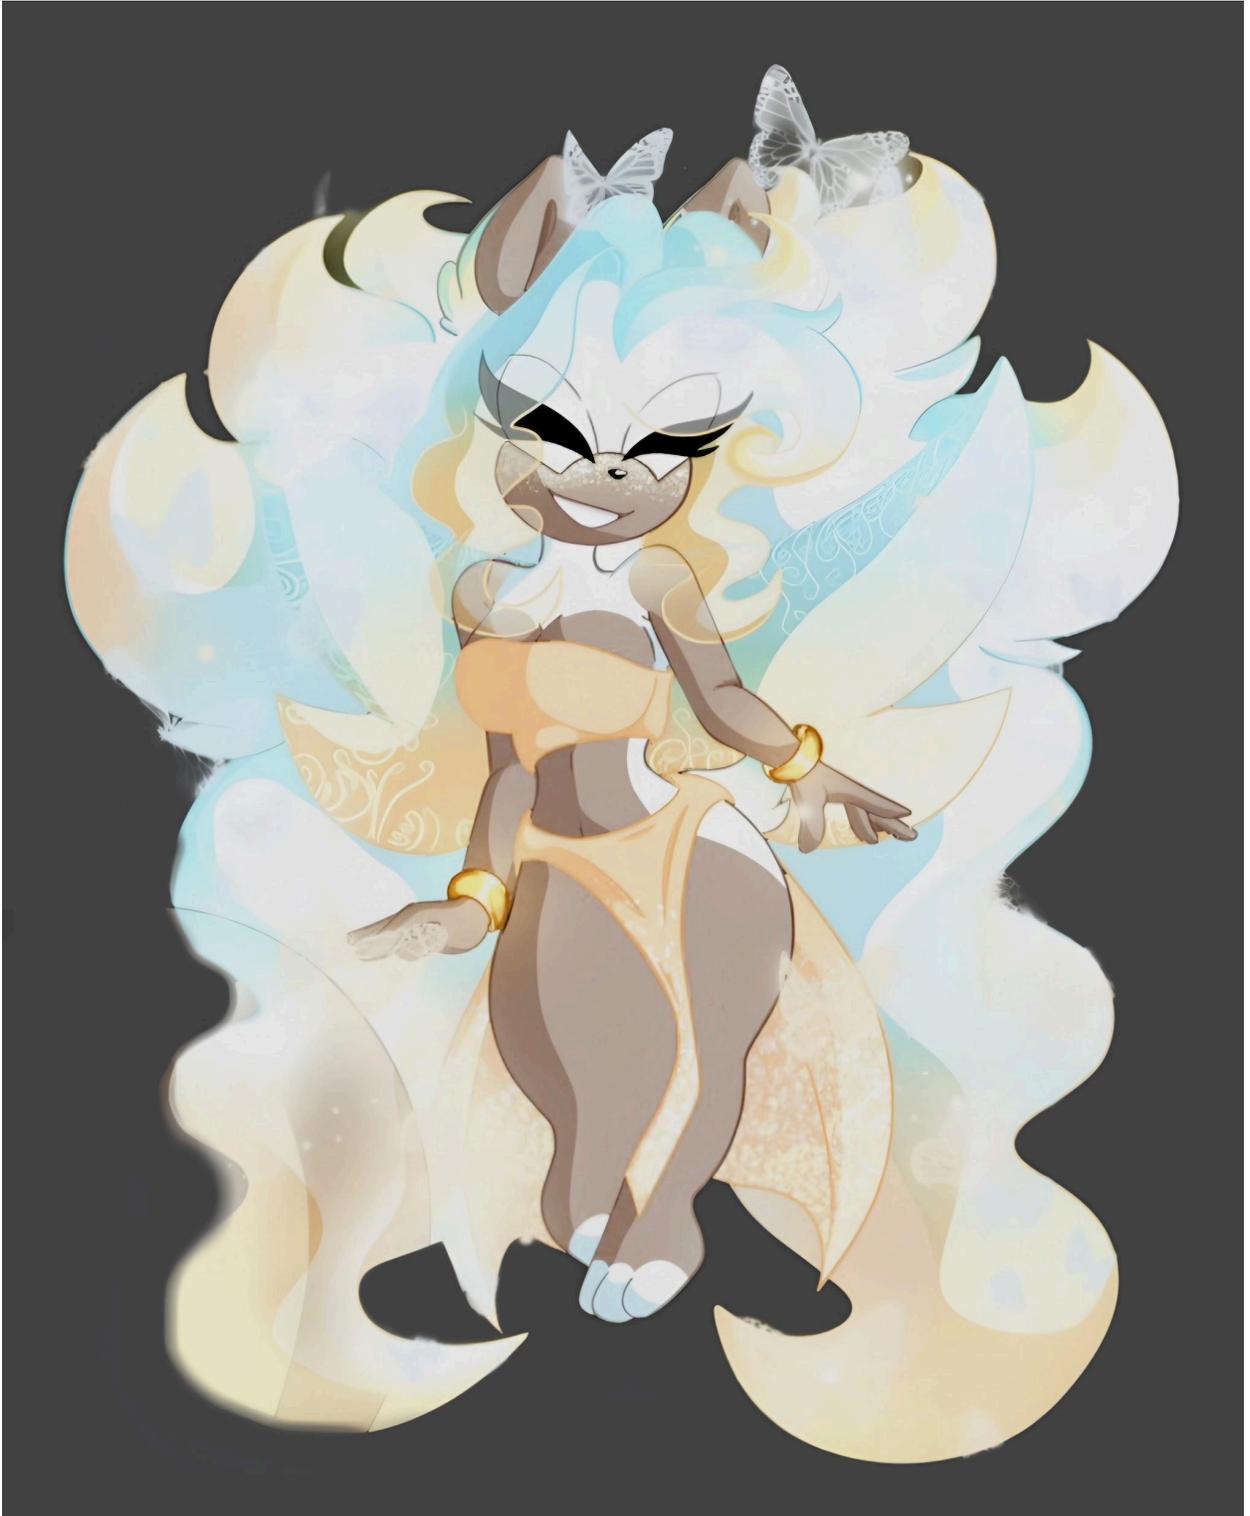

For being the Demi-goddess of Gaia ——— Raya was known as the lone hero ; saving her world from natural causes such as Earthquakes, tsunamis , and tornados. Light Gaia was always in charge when it came to the hero’s work, whether it was having to create a force field of light around the village or putting the world back together before the village could go into shambles .

Despite being the hero of her dimension, Raya was in two past relationships

One partner , Anghel puro ; her first and young love, someone who was lower class but seemed to always try his best to treat Raya right, protected her through thick and thin even if it meant fighting off others to keep the goddess safe and out of trouble . This baby blue hedgehog was deceased after being washed away from a tsunami ; not allowing raya to break the force field of light the village was protected under, not risking her life to let him in after the waves were quick and heavy. Not only the hedgehogs of her mobains to be saved but also for Raya . For Anghel his first and last partner's safety and happiness was the only thing that mattered to him.

her second and so far last relationship was with a Shape shifting hedgehog , Adrean ocuridad ; an narcissistic partner who only wanted Raya for her deity as the hedgehog was seeking for godly powers and immortality. Raya was only 17 years old when she tried to leave the shapeshifter , causing him to admit he only wanted her for power as Adrean chopped the hybrid's wings off — causing the deity to fight back . With the tragic events of her past and trusting her past partner Adrean in a relationship ; the hybrid was forced to evacuate to safety as the emerald from her world (the Icarus emeralds) sent her to Sonic's dimension to start a new life and to hide her identity as a deity of Gaia as the hybrid was forced to learn English & Japanese as well as changing her looks to decrease the traumatic memories she experience and to not be noticeable if Adrean ever figured out how to get to Mobius .

Appearances

— Raya in the past , the heroic chao hybrid .

— Raya
first came mobius , ( chopped hunter's

when she to quills off with a blade)

— Raya growing her quills out and being a wilted rose (before her evolution)

—— Raya's final form , her adult form (she stops growing at this stage)

“ I had no CHOICE but, to be a FIGHTER . . . you don't know my life nor who I really am SONIC . ”

Personality

Raya in the past was known to be bubbly , sweet, with the mindset of a naive child . She used to be a very warm type of girl ; would easily get flustered, be positive, crack jokes, and was in touch with her emotions ! Raya is the type to always put her family first before herself , meaning she would be highly protective of anyone she considers family or a potential spouse .

With the tragic events happening for Raya and chopping her quills and changing its hues along with defecting her natural curls , the memories it held in her quills psychology changed her demeanor ; making the hybrid extremely sassy, cold, and a fighter . The wilted rose chao is known to be extremely on edge for not being able to let out her Gaia energies (for her safety) The Gaia's , primarily light Gaia ; allows Raya to be in touch with her emotions which forces the Demi goddess in hiding to constantly be serious , on edge, and easily defensive. She is known to enjoy helping others despite being a brooding type with a hint of her past spark , fond of being the world's healer if she can't save Sonic's dimension by being a deity .

The chao hybrid is known to soften up when getting to know someone with their aura , energy, and building / gaining trust within the other character. Raya is known to have a lot of distrust for others, causing her to keep her wall and guard up when it comes to new faces unless she senses something different , something pure hearted in the character's aura .

RAYA'S PERSONALITY WHEN SHE EVOLVES ; When Raya is in her chao cocoon , her brain will fully develop, maturity will be a huge thing for her & how she represents herself .

Raya will be much calmer rather than picking a fight all the time to protect herself . She will develop to be more grown up , softer even . . . yet she will still fight only if there is an emergency . The evolutionary chao hybrid will start learning how to be more in touch with her emotions ; self accepting her Gaia energies , her flaws & even accepting her natural yellow hues from her natural quills popping out from her quill dye from the evolution . The sunset coloured chao will also not be as stubborn as she was before ; thinking both logically & emotionally as she keeps a balance with her maturity levels .

Powers & abilities

Despite being a closed off demigoddess , Raya is the goddess of Gaia meaning she has three forms : Light Gaia, Dark Gaia, and Eclipse Gaia which is a fusion of light and dark Gaia when they decide internally to work together (only for deadly emergencies that would endanger Raya)

— Light Gaia form , The goddess of a Divine light

Light Gaia's abilities are able to manipulate the light and positive energy within the Earth's core , Light Gaia has the same abilities as Chip however, from being in a different dimension her abilities and powers are a tad different than Mobius Gaia energy .

Healing

Light Gaia is able to heal deep wounds, exposed skin that reveals organs , and sickness (cancer , strokes, heart attacks etc.) Light Gaia is not able to heal already healed scars , decapitated parts, or Old age. Her aura is able to heal someone's stress and anxiety but not past trauma . . .

Reconstruction of the Earth

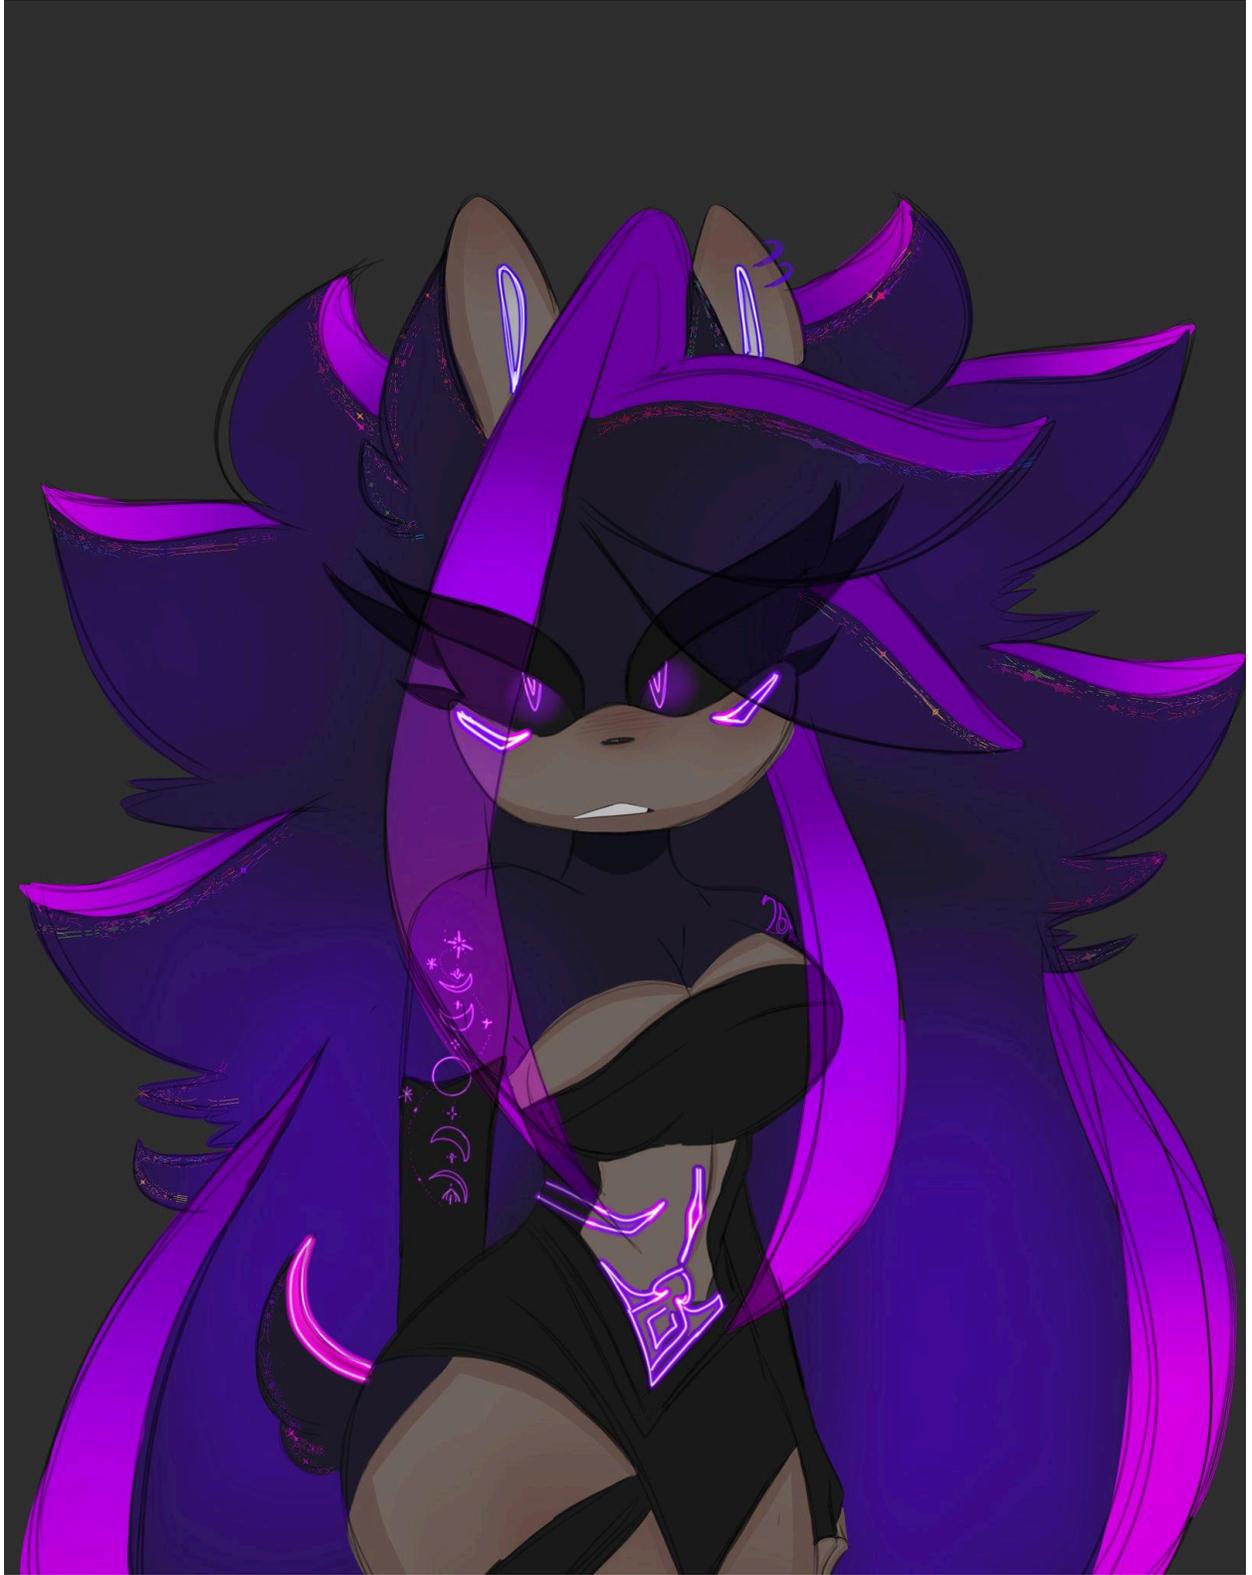

With Raya / Light Gaia being a hero for natural causes , The Divine light is able to stop Earthquakes , put continents back together , and of course stop the Earth from breaking . She is able to feel the Earth's core like a Heartbeat ,

Light manipulation

Despite Light Gaia being so fragile and anxious, She is amongst the strongest out of all the Sonic Character's and has equal energy to Dark Gaia . For being the Goddess of Divine Light , the Goddess is able to create weapons and forcefield made out of other's positive Aura's , energy , and the Earth's light .

Gaia temples

With being a variant and Light Gaia energy , the goddess is able to share a connection with the Gaia temples with just her energy and aura, if she genuinely needed to , she is able to summon and create the Gaia Colossus with all seven Gaia temples .

— Dark Gaia form , Goddess of eternal darkness

Dark Gaia being the polar opposite of Light Gaia yet similar , she is able to manipulate dark energy from the earth's core, being able to create weapons out of people's negative emotions such as anger , fear, depression , dullness and negative aura's and of course dark energy .

Summoning Dark Gaia walls

Dark Gaia has the ability to take in the Earth's core, summoning walls where she is able to take more advantage of her movements or try to crush someone like an insect. Usually she creates them to surround her opponent ; making sure they don't try to escape so easily from her .

Dark Gaia creatures

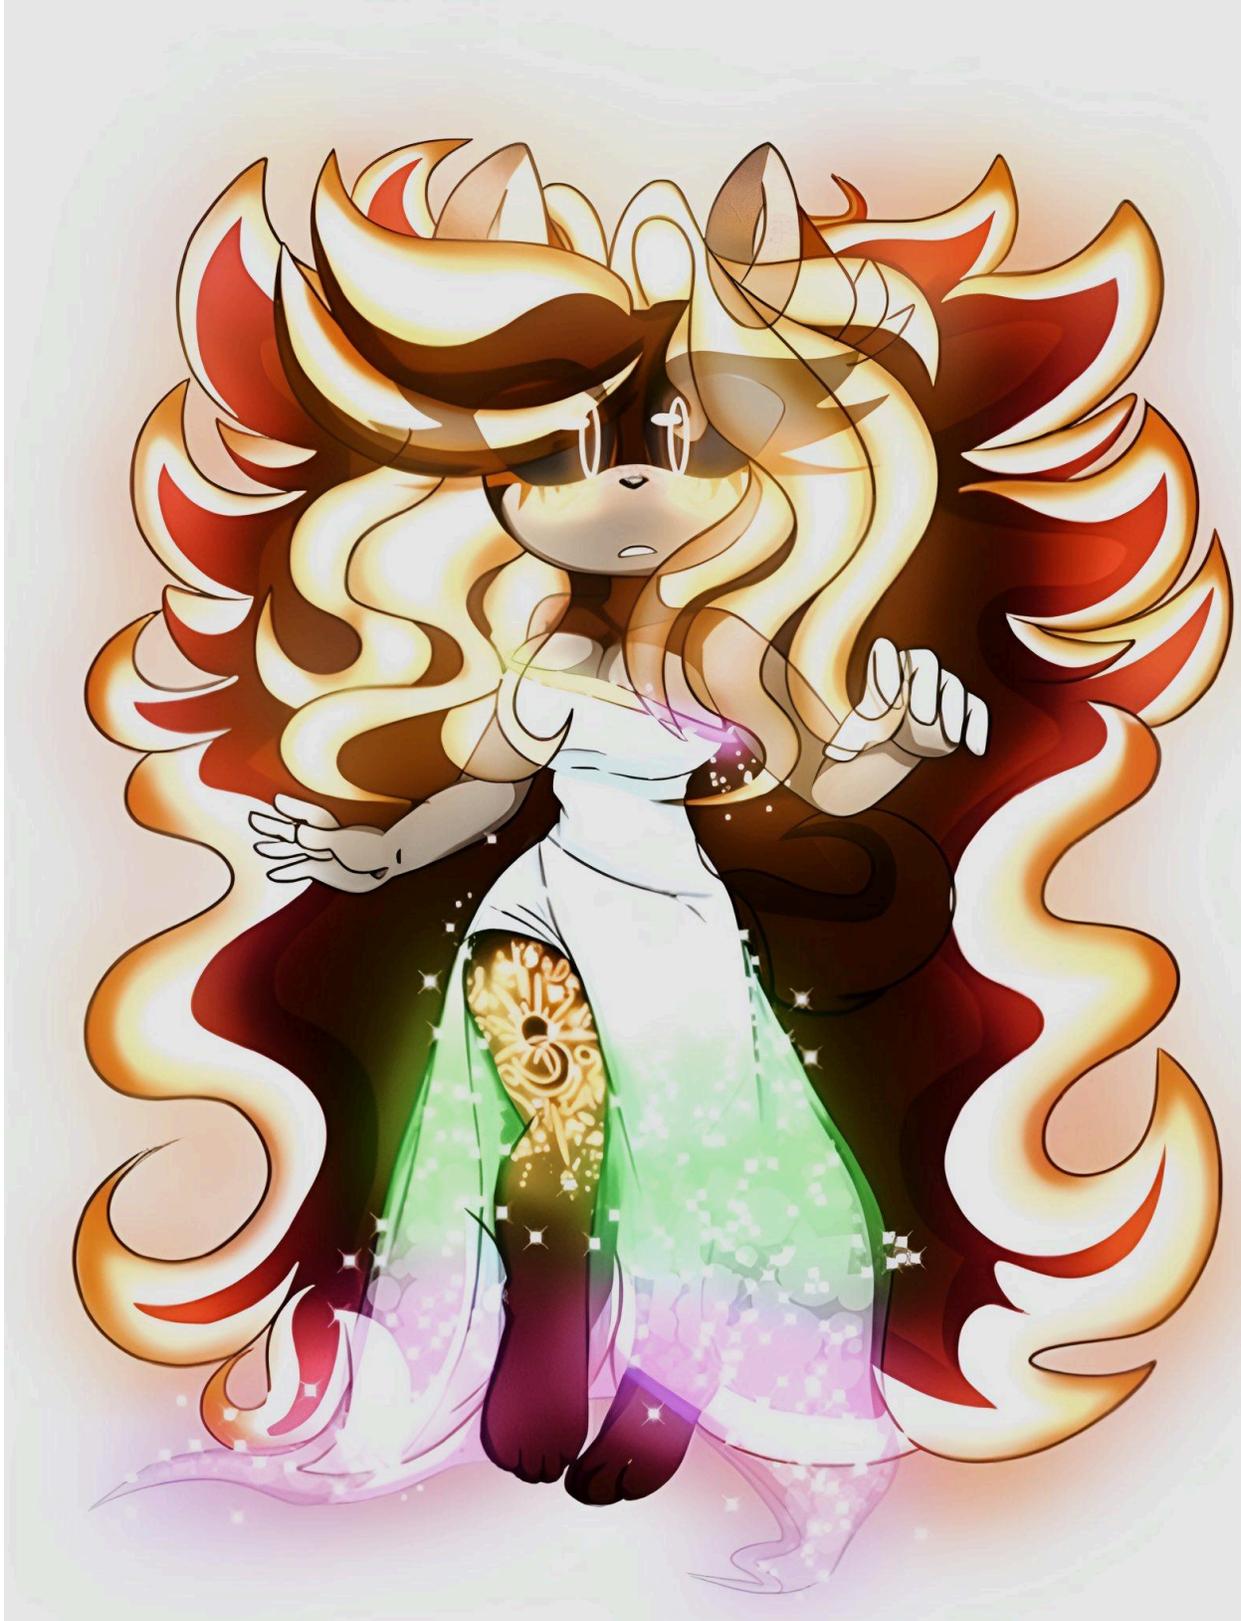

Dark Gaia is able to create her own creatures (the nightmare gaias etc .) she'll make use of them to make other's the opposite of themselves , having them go in the deepest part of their heart and make them someone they're not .

Example : someone with pride and confidence can be the opposite of themselves ; depressed and insecure of themselves .

Purple Beams / thunder

Dark Gaia as the Eternal darkness is known to be a fighter , not as much as a pacifist as Light Gaia —— Dark Gaia is able to shoot beams from the palms of her hands and mouth , usually the first sign she's about to is when purple fumes come out of her nostrils like a Chinese dragon .

Dark Gaia is able to create weapons out of the dark energy she possesses such as beams of a bow and arrow , thunder bolts , and even blades of purple thunder .

—— Eclipse Gaia form , the fusion of Light and Dark Gaia energy

Eclipse Gaia is known to be the rarity of the Gaia's , her touch is able to be as hot as the Sun ; being the fusion of Light and Dark Gaia involves their energies mixing together and being able to be the most powerful character in the Sonic community .

Self healing

With light gaia , Eclipse Gaia is able to heal herself with every attack ; if someone were to scratch her that had flesh exposed , she is able to heal right on the spot as she gets stronger within every heal she has to do

Radiates like the sun and has the sun's touch

Eclipse Gaia is able to turn as bright as the sun or have the burning touch of the undying sol , this Goddess variant being like an eclipse sun , she is able to make an eclipse sun emerge as she still remains bright and powerful (she actually gains more energy when there is an eclipse)

One touch from her , she is able to change the temperature within her body and around her ; either she will be lukewarm or hot enough to burn flesh and bones by the touch .

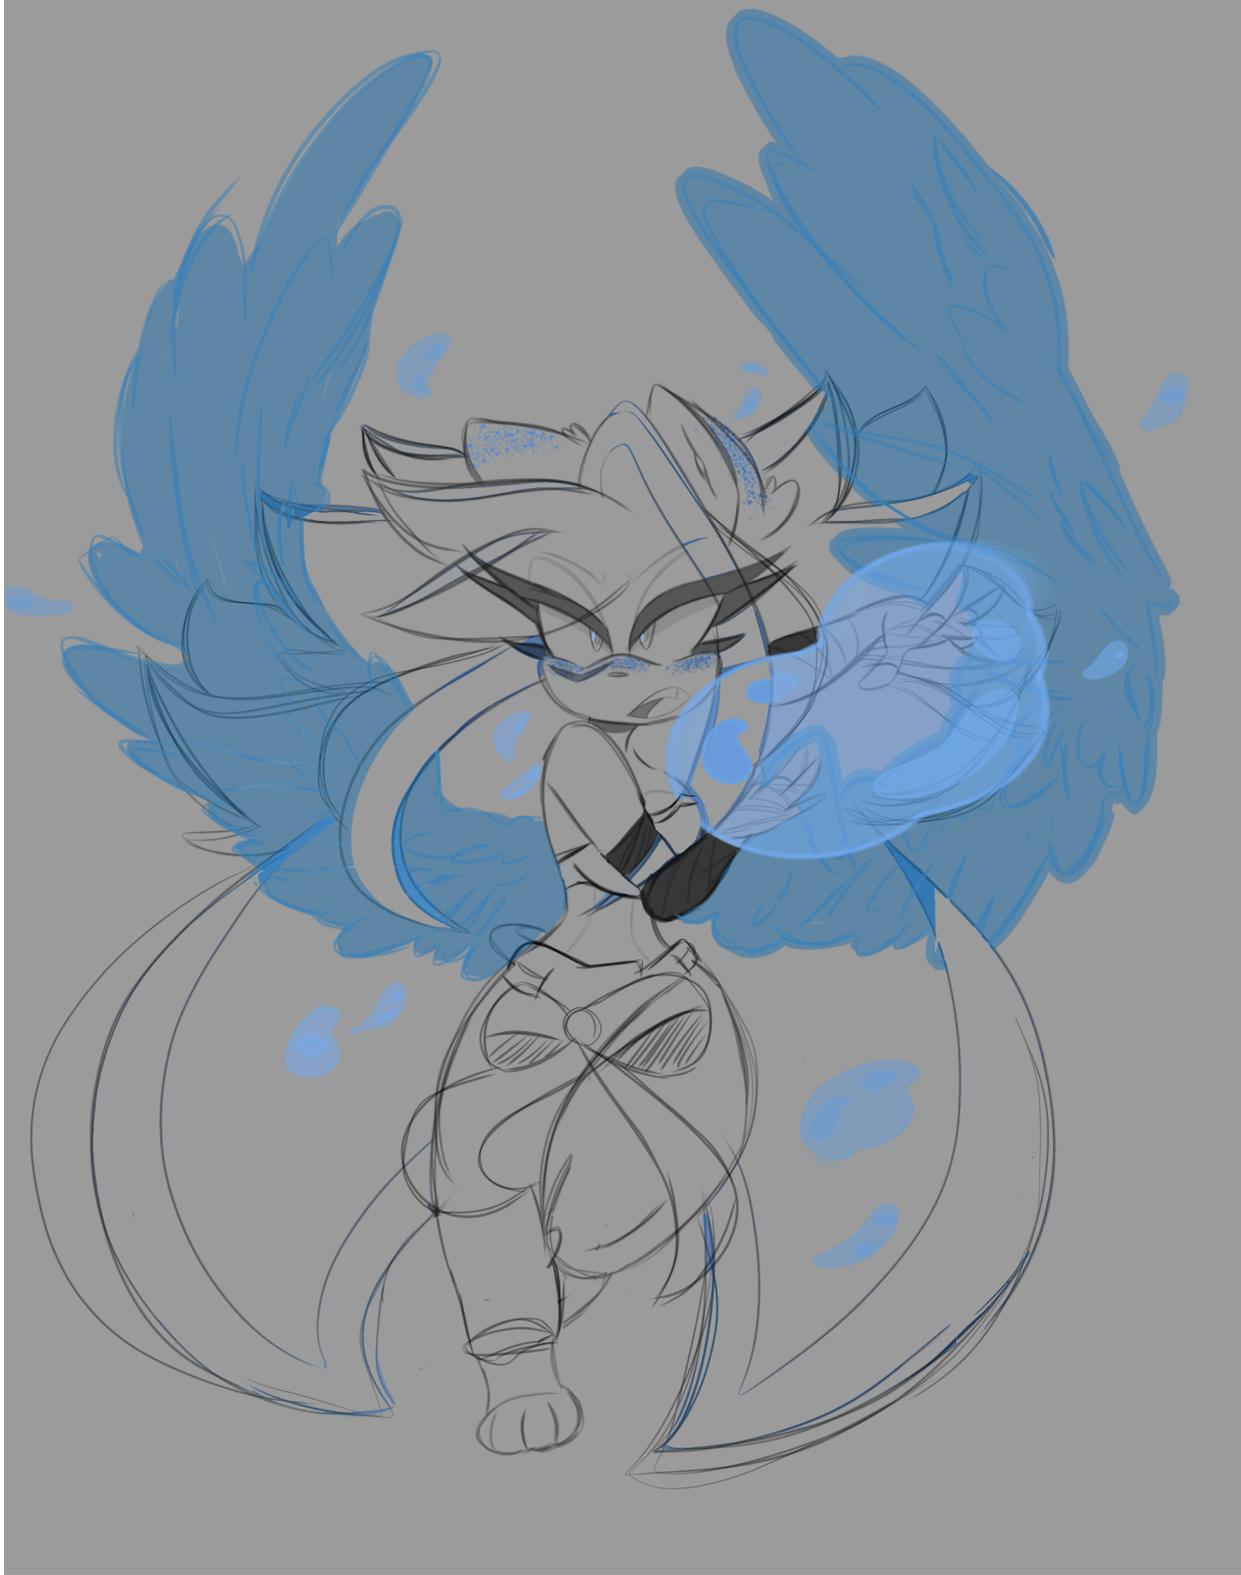

Fire bending

With being Eclipse Gaia , she is able to bend fire within the earth's surface —— flames hotter than the princess of sol . This goddess is able to breathe fire within her mouth , bend fire in the palm of her hands / paws (feet) , and around her,

As well as creating thunder bolts equivalent to Zeus himself, Eclipse Gaia is able to throw those thunder bolts at the speed of light in order to protect herself or fight back .

Eclipse Gaia dragons / Phoenix

Like Dark Gaia able to create nightmare Gaia's , Eclipse Gaia is able to create a far more elegant kind of species such as Phoenixes and Chinese dragons ; she usually does this when it comes to her being at a distance where she needs to buy herself time . Having those beings breathe fire within the distance as it charges at the opponent (rarely blue fire)

——— HYDROKINESIS (a gift from diosa de luna , goddess of the moon)

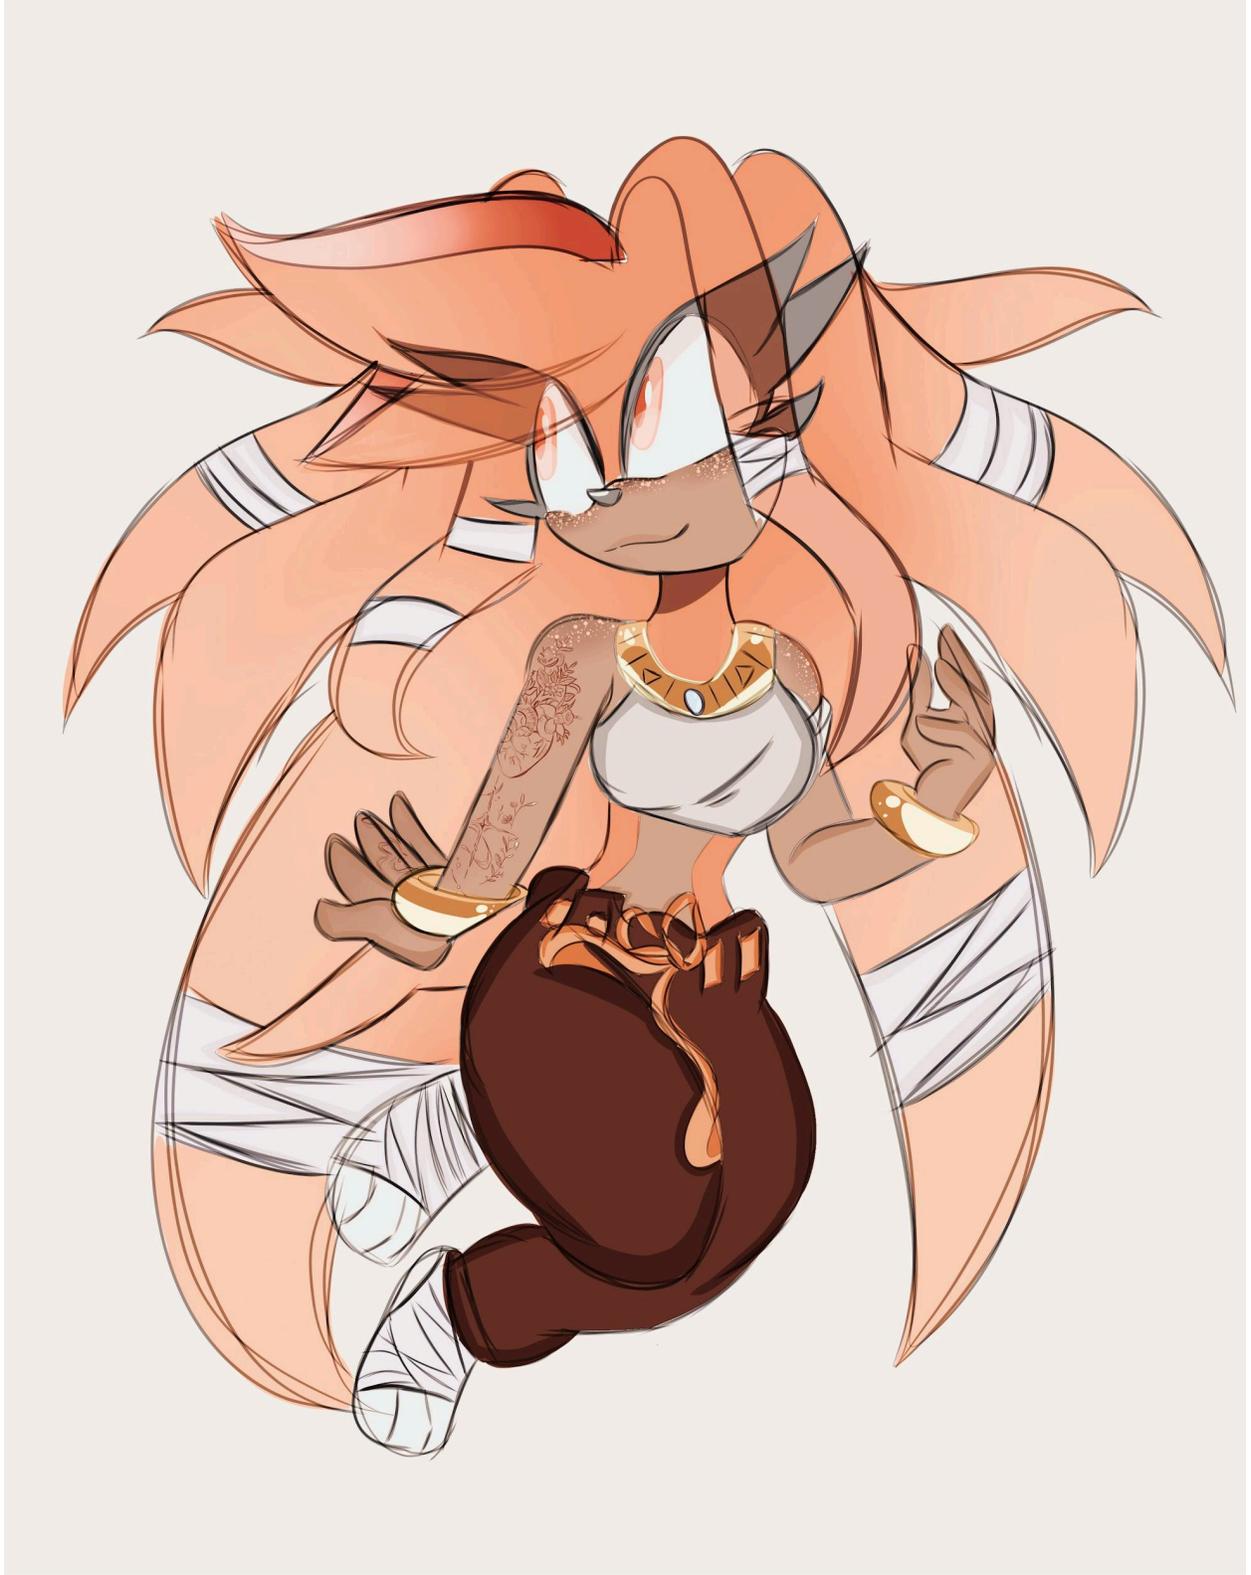

When Raya met the gods for the first time in her dreams ; a way the gods finally got touch of Raya after vanishing from her home world . Dios de sol gave Raya the gift to summon life of the souls to see again every DIA DE LOS MUERTOS while diosa de luna gifted Raya the ability to take control of water if she wanted to keep protecting herself from not over using her gaias .

Water wings

This was meant to happen considering diosa de luna knows raya has lost her chao Angelic wings after the events , knowing her freedom was stripped away from Raya ; allowing her to summon liquid ocean wings to soar in the air

Water bending

Raya is able to bend water , mostly summon any type of water from planets ! She is able to make weapons , tsunamis , & many more just from anything Hydro .

—— example of a fusion , RAKAL (Tikal & Raya)

With the Gaia's able to fuse together as eclipse Gaia , Raya has the ability to fuse with another individual (does not matter if you're mobian or not)

What can a fusion do ? When fusing with Raya , her partner she fuses with is able to harness their energy & Raya's energy along side battles . When someone is fused with Raya , they're able to see Dark Gaia & Light Gaia Present as the fusion's mentalities is intertwined .

How does one fuse with Raya ? In order to fuse with raya you have to create a symbolic dance , meaning this dance should come straight from the heart , whether it's slow dancing or dancing in a chaotic way .

However , if one argues , shows negative emotions towards one another (yelling , anger , aggravated) the fusion can break apart , leaving the Two separated in their bodies , back to normal !

Weaknesses

A weakness for Raya along with her Gaia forms involves kicking or punching her beating heart . Raya was born with Wolff Parkinson White ; “ A syndrome in which an extra electrical pathway in the heart causes a rapid heartbeat. ”

If you kick / punch Raya in her normal form she will be more affected with the pain, causing her to have an effect equivalent to a SVT or heart attack , causing the hybrid to potentially pass out

However, with the Gaia forms ; they have a normal heart rate , allowing Raya to keep a strong stamina. It takes 2-3 times for the damages in the heart barrier to kick in in order for Raya to go back to the way she was . This will allow Raya to Process everything that has happened yet, go through a SVT . . . Meaning she will hold her throat to try and breathe, have her heartbeat be felt against the earth's soil , and will be forced to have herself and the Gaia's heal (at least a 2 week recovery)

Features

Raya has some important key features when it comes to being the daughter that has inherited her father's experimented DNA as a chao hybrid .

Color changing freckles : Raya has inherited her father's color changing freckles that exposes her emotions and when she is intoxicated ...

Baby blue : embarrassed

Baby pink : genuine happiness

Sage green : sick or nausea

Baby yellow : drunk (💧)

White : sadness

Maroon : flustered , overwhelmed

Crimson red : anger , frustration, aggravated

Tip of her ears becoming a darker tone : when someone is talking about her , or senses something like a simple flick to the ear, her ears can become a darker shade, causing her to be aware of her surroundings .

Ears / quills fluffing up : Raya's quills , fur , and ears are as soft as a chinchilla , luckily she is still able to get in water but, she is very soft and fluffy , when her quills or ears fluff up it is a sign of fondness or overly flustered by affection . . . She rarely does it when she is overwhelmed by genuine affection rather than seduction or flirting.

Attraction / magnetic other's fur or quills : this . . . Sadly exposes Raya when she kisses or cuddles someone for too long, Raya is able to attract someone's hair, fur, and quills with friction . Which causes her to have small bits of it and yet is easy to point out with her alabaster quill color.

Relationships

(wasn't too sure if I should put the relationships between canon characters considering Raya is not a canon character however , there are a few relationships that are involved with her dimension that are highly important to know for Raya's past life and lore .)

Emilia

“ mija , Los dioses te dieron este propósito, tengo suerte de tener un héroe por hija. ”

Translation ; darling, the gods gave you this purpose, I am lucky I have a hero for a daughter

Emilia is Raya's biological mother , Caregiver and only wanting the best for Raya . With her little chao hybrid becoming a woman at 15, she always pushed her to be an elegant lady yet extremely responsible . Even with Raya's right brain being stronger than her left side of the brain (right brain is emotional thinking while left brain is logical) She always did her best to take Raya to the right path.

Sadly with everything that happened between Raya and her first love, when Adrean came into her life and did everything to reel her in with manipulation , she was manipulated by the shapeshifter ; causing her to push Raya into the relationship as the loving mother thought it was best for her and a way to forget about the other who was distracting her from being Light Gaia . She is considered to be semi-close to Raya when she and Adrean were in a relationship, before they used to be close and emotionally together as a family .

After she lost Raya their connection remained broken , causing the mother to regret everything from pushing her to adrean, the manipulation, and yet is still unknown to the events that happened to Raya .

Alasario

“ Arriesgué toda mi vida para traer a mi bebé a este mundo, nunca te llames inútil ”

Translation ; i risked my whole life to bring my baby girl into this world, don't you ever call yourself worthless

Alasario, name meaning of a brave warrior , her father was known as PROJECT ; CHAO — he escaped the labs he was tested in , meeting Raya's mother. Raya has always looked up to her father for risking his life for her.

Raya was supposed to pass away by the time she was born, leaving her to die as soon as she hit the earth's oxygen . Alasario disagreed to let his only daughter and first child to pass away, going back in the labs to find a tube that had light gaia and dark Gaia souls inside of it, stealing it so Raya would be gifted a life ; not knowing this would make her a Demi-goddess of gaia, believing this was meant to happen in her story line.

(storyline ; a belief from their gods that has everything happens for a reason .)

Alasario taught Raya to be a fighter, despite being so stubborn and believing violence was not the answer , which has helped Raya when she was forced to evacuate into sonic's dimension as a Demi-goddess in hiding .

Alsario shares a father like daughter connection when she inherited her emotion coloured changing freckles from when he was tested in the labs along with being the reason she is still alive. Her father always tried to make Raya open up when she was with Adrean , causing her to always put a smile on her face and act like nothing was wrong . . . Automatically realizing she puts makeup on her freckles to hide the negative emotions, causing him to read Raya like a book . . .

By the time Raya was gone he left . . . Depressed and stressed constantly, which allowed it to be hard when he has a youngest son along his side, causing him to be extra protective and less putting himself first when it came to anything for himself.

Ximena

“ Raya, sé lo que es el amor, ese no es el amor real. ”

Translation ; Raya I know what real love is, that is not real love .

Ximena is Raya’s cousin, prima ; she plays a special role in Raya’s life , being not only her cousin but like an older sister to her. Ximena is a tattoo artist that has done all of Raya’s symbolic tattoos as well as opening her eyes when she was in an abusive / manipulative relationship with Adrean. Her cousin is known to be a spiritual being , practicing the spiritual ways of inner peace and emotional states within the heart , being able to read when Raya has been getting worse and worse with her emotions.

This hedgehog usually was Raya’s emotional support when she couldn’t go to her parents for things she bottled up ; anger , sadness, fear, heartache . . . Instead of pushing her to be with Adrean or going into the path of destruction Ximena does everything she can to make her realize she deserves better than what she was going through for 3 years with the shapeshifter.

With Raya being gone and having to see Raya’s wings as a lie she gave up her life, Ximena has always had a feeling it was not true , causing her life to be endanger if she were to try to speak her mind and the truth of what she believes .

Máximo

[slides pictures of him and Raya together as Raya being a caring big sister]

Máximo , nickname to be Maxi is Raya's little brother who suffers with being on the spectrum (ASL ; autism disorder spectrum)

Maxi is often quiet and will usually run away when others talk to him unless he is around his biological older sister , Raya . . . He is often with her when the hybrids are able to relax under the shade or at home where it's cool ; a sensory adaptation to dislike the feeling of sweat or even tears . Máximo is 5 years old ! Usually is not able to take In Raya's emotions yet, knows sometimes drawing pictures or trying to fly with his heroic chao hybrid wings makes Raya giggle or smile slightly .

After Raya's disappearance, he believes one day she will come home , sometimes sitting in her old bedroom or out the door in the shade . . . Waiting for the day she comes home (he was not told about Raya's "death")

Anghel

“ Tu felicidad me importa y tu seguridad. . . te amo mi heroe ”

Translation: “ Your happiness matters to me and your safety . . . I love you my hero ”

Anghel was Raya's first love , they met when they were kids as best friends and became something more at 12-13, Anghel was part of the lower class, nothing had expenses but he did come from a broken old home and a family that was always trying to search for food and water constantly. Anghel is a baby blue hedgehog that had curly bangs just like Raya, always doing his best to give Raya protection and safety as a deity ; fighting others that wanted to put her in danger or tried to start trouble such as crimes and Robberies.

Anghel passed away after a terrible tsunami came into Cuarzo Rosa, being tricked by a group of men including Adrean that shapeshifted into one of the main men in the group as they took Anghel to where they suspected the tsunami was going to be at. This made the group of men including the shapeshifter get to town safely before Light Gaia could save the village, leaving Anghel to sacrifice himself for Raya's safety as he was washed away and drowned in the heavy waves.

Adrean

“Solo quería esa energía gaia para mí, ¿realmente crees que ALGUIEN podría amarte alguna vez?”

Translation: “ I only wanted that gaia energy for myself, you truly think ANYONE could ever love YOU ?? ”

Adrean came into play when he always admired the deity from a distance, jealousy spread through him when he found out Raya and Anghel were a couple ; leaving him to plot everything out in order to get a hold of Raya. Think of him like lord Barkis from Corpse Bride . Instead of being money hungry he was power hungry , tricking Anghel to be left for dead in order to get closer to Raya while she was still heart broken.

Adrean reeled Raya in with a lot of love bombing , giving her gold, and being extra loving like a honeymoon phase to manipulate Raya at 15, causing him to take full control of her

TW : GROOMING , MANIPULATION, TRIGGERS OF TRAUMA / PTSD

Adrean was known to be manipulative and a Narcissist towards Raya, grooming her to believe cheating is a reasonable punishment for when he was angered. Raya had a hard time being a lone hero and being in love with this shapeshifter , not even realizing sometimes he would pretend to be her friends and family to be in her personal bubble and get information out of her ; whether to see how she was doing mentally or if the gaisas were out of control.

This went on for 3 years before Ximena finally went to her to tell Raya that is not true love and how Anghel showed more true love than he ever did .

ALL GOOD TO READ PAST HERE !!

When Raya opened her eyes , taking her family’s prized possession with the ICARUS EMERALD that was similar to a rose quartz, she took the Icarus emerald in case of an emergency. When The hybrid decided to finally leave him . . . He revealed all his secrets ; including how he was the reason Anghel was dead, shapeshifted into one of the main leaders of the popular group of men , and only wanted her for her Gaia energy. This shapeshifter expected Raya to be killed under his vision till she turned into light gaia, using the emerald to be sent to a different dimension . . . Only being left to bleed to almost a sudden death till the chao’s saved her in the Chao Gardens .

This made Adrean lie about Raya giving up her own life to save himself, remaining as the most powerful being in Cuarzo Rosa , manipulating a whole village and Raya’s family that she is deceased (except for Ximena)
