Directions:

You MUST follow all steps completely and accurately for me to consider your test corrections for re-grading. If the new answer is correct and accurately justified, you will earn back 50% credit for a previously missed answer.

STEP 1: Identify the questions you missed. Write the question number in the Question Missed # column. In the My Original Answer column, briefly summarize the answer you originally wrote.

STEP 2: Place the number that best fits the reason for missing the question in the WHY? column.

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| 1) I didn't understand the question | 4) I thought I had this right |
| 2) I studied this but forgot | 5) I had no clue about this |
| 3) I ran out of time or guessed | 6) I made a careless mistake |

STEP 3: Correct the question you missed by writing your new answer in the Corrected Answer column. Then justify why this is now the correct answer in the Why is the new answer correct? column. It is not sufficient to write "I found it in my notes." Write exactly where the correct answer is found by including the date or the page number. You must also write the actual answer, not just a letter.

Question # Missed	My Original Answer (summarize what you wrote)	Why? (choose a # from above)	Corrected Answer (write on the back if needed)	Why is the new answer correct? (include page # or notes date)	Points (Tchr.)
Ex.	John Adams wrote the Declaration of Independence.	2	Thomas Jefferson wrote the Declaration of Independence.	I found the correct answer on page 35 of my textbook.

If you need more room use the back. Please staple the original quiz or test to this form. Thank you.
