

- 1. Assign one person as a "writer": this person needs a piece of paper and a pen/pencil. This person is NOT responsible for anything other than writing (so this person does not need to share a sentence).
- 2. Each person from your group (except the writer) needs to choose one sentence from his or her quickwrite to share.
- 3. The writer needs to first write the word and it's part of speech.
- 4. Write each sentence chosen and underline the vocabulary word.
- 5. Then, as a group you need to decide if this sentence works or if it does not.
- 6. Write below a sentence or more about why it works or why it does not. Explain WHY.

EXAMPLE:

- 1. Maliciously - adverb

The boy maliciously destroyed her vocabulary list.

Yes, this sentence works because the boy is mischievously destroying someone's list.

- 2. Affront - noun

I affronted my best friend.

No, this does not work. This sentence means that I
