Nice Jewish Family Seeking Nice Jewish Full Time Nanny/ Babysitter! January- June 2027

About us:

Donny and Shari are new parents to a very adorable baby girl, living on West 94th Street. Shari is a guidance counselor that loves to support college students and an alum of UMass Hillel as well as Hunter's MSEd program. Donny is a construction project manager working on a variety of development projects around the tri- state area and an alum of a Massa internship. Shari works at a high school in Brooklyn and is not home during the day, Donny is hybrid, working from home most days with the ability to work from an office.

What we're looking for:

- A college student with full day availability from 8:00am- 5:00pm, Monday- Friday from January- June. We're open to hiring 2 sitters if classes conflict and you are unable to work 5 days a week.
- One day a week in November + December while Donny's on paternity leave to ease into things and possible date night babysitting from September - January. Day of the week can be flexible.
- College student(s) that can make a full 6 month commitment

Expectations:

- Change/ feed/ clean baby as needed
- Tidy up any activities/ toys before leaving at the end of the day
- Take our daughter outside for at least 1-2 hours each day, weather permitting
- When our daughter is awake, give her your full attention (no screen time, not on your phone, no headphones on, etc.). When she's sleeping, do your homework!

- Some prior nannying/ babysitting experience with 0-2 year olds

Bonus points if:

- Hebrew speaking (Aba is Israeli but his Hebrew is a little rusty)
- Studying education/ Interest in pursuing a career in education
- CPR certified

Compensation: $3,400/ month

Daily Babysitter in Lower Manhattan

My name is Cameron Levkoff, and I live near City Hall in lower Manhattan with my nine-year-old son, who will be attending Jewish day school this fall.

I'm reaching out because we're looking for a warm, responsible, engaging Jewish college student who might be interested in a babysitter position during the upcoming school year.

My son is bright, kind, funny, and curious, and we're hoping to find someone who will become a positive role model and a consistent presence in his life.

The position is primarily after school:

- Monday–Thursday: approximately 3:30–6:30 p.m.
- Friday: approximately 1:15–6:30 p.m.
- Occasional flexibility to stay later in the evening is appreciated, though advance notice will always be given.

We offer competitive compensation and, whenever possible, will happily work around a student's class and exam schedule.

Ideally, we're looking for someone who is:

- Kind, dependable, and mature
- Energetic and engaging
- Comfortable accompanying him to activities, playdates, homework, etc.
- Interested in building a consistent relationship throughout the school year

High Holiday Family Service Leader @ Congregation Oheb Shalom, South Orange NJ

Congregation Oheb Shalom is seeking a warm, engaging, and creative Jewish educator or service leader to design and lead our Family High Holiday Services for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur.

These one-hour services are designed specifically for families with children in Kindergarten through 5th grade. Our goal is to create an experience that is meaningful, participatory, and spiritually engaging for both children and adults—one that honors the traditions of the High Holidays while making them engaging and relevant to young families.

Responsibilities
• Design and lead one-hour Family Services for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur.
• Create services that blend traditional Jewish prayer and ritual with age-appropriate storytelling, discussion, music, and interactive experiences.
• Lead prayers and songs throughout the service. Guitar accompaniment is preferred but not required.
• Adapt existing synagogue or personal materials as appropriate; original content is welcome but not required.
• Work collaboratively with synagogue staff during one or two planning meetings prior to the High Holidays to align the services with Congregation Oheb Shalom's vision and schedule.

• Create an atmosphere that is warm, welcoming, inclusive, and engaging for children and their families.

Qualifications
The ideal candidate will have:
• Experience leading Jewish worship services, particularly family, children's, or educational services.
• Strong knowledge of Jewish liturgy and the themes of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur.
• The ability to connect authentically with both children and adults.
• Excellent public speaking, facilitation, and musical leadership skills.
• Confidence leading congregational singing. Guitar accompaniment is a plus but not required.
• Creativity, warmth, flexibility, and a passion for helping families build meaningful Jewish experiences.

Time Commitment
• Lead one Family Service on Rosh Hashanah (approximately one hour).
• Lead one Family Service on Yom Kippur (approximately one hour).
• Participate in one or two planning meetings (can be virtual) with synagogue staff prior to the High Holidays.

Compensation
This is a paid contract position. Compensation range is $1000-$3000 and commensurate with experience.

To Apply
Please email your resume to Gavin Hirsch, Education Director, at gavinhirsch@ohebshalom.org.

About Congregation Oheb Shalom
Congregation Oheb Shalom is a warm and welcoming Conservative synagogue in South Orange, New Jersey. We are committed to building vibrant Jewish community and creating meaningful experiences for learners and families of all ages. Our Family High Holiday Services are an important part of that mission, offering children and their parents an engaging entry point into the beauty and significance of the High Holidays. Interested candidates should submit a résumé along with a brief description of their experience leading family or children's Jewish services.

5th Grade Israel Educator @ Temple Beth El, White Plains, NY

5th Grade Israel Educator (Mondays & Thursdays, 3:45–5:45 PM)

Temple Beth El is a vibrant Reform congregation of more than 650 families located in Chappaqua, NY, approximately 35 miles north of New York City and easily accessible via Metro-North. Our thriving Religious School serves nearly 500 students.

We are seeking an engaging Israel Educator to teach our 5th grade students on Mondays and Thursdays from 3:45–5:45 PM. During each session, the educator will teach two different groups of 5th graders for 45 minutes each, followed by participation in our school-wide tefillah.

The educator will follow our established grade-level curriculum while creating original lessons, adapting provided materials, and helping facilitate a variety of experiential, grade-wide educational programs throughout the year. On Mondays, the educator will be joined by our community Shinshinit, and on Thursdays, by an Israeli diplomat, providing students with meaningful opportunities to connect with contemporary Israeli voices and perspectives.

We offer a highly competitive salary along with a transportation stipend.

Religious School Teacher @ Beth El Synagogue Center, New Rochelle NY

Beth El's Religious School serves approximately 85 learners in Kindergarten through 7th grade and is actively growing. We are a warm, welcoming, and inclusive community dedicated to fostering a lifelong love of Jewish learning and living. Our dynamic program integrates Jewish values, Hebrew, prayer, Israel, art, and culture in meaningful and engaging ways. Specialists in Israeli culture, art, prayer, and Hebrew enrich our curriculum, helping bring Jewish traditions and values to life.

At Beth El, every learner is known, valued, and supported. Our small class sizes, collaborative faculty, and strong sense of community create an environment where children feel at home—and where they genuinely want to be.

School Schedule

Our Religious School meets:

- Thursdays: 4:00–6:00 pm

- Sundays: 9:00–11:00 am or 9:00 am–12:00 pm (depending on grade level)

Learning & Inclusion Specialist @ Beth El Synagogue Center, New Rochelle NY

We are seeking a collaborative and creative Learning & Inclusion Specialist to support our growing Religious School community. This part-time position plays a key role in ensuring that all learners can meaningfully participate in Jewish learning by partnering with educators, families, and school leadership to create an inclusive and supportive learning environment.

The Learning & Inclusion Specialist will collaborate with other Learning and Behavioral Specialists, work directly with learners and educators through classroom support, small-group and individual instruction, and consult on differentiated teaching strategies.

Schedule

Our Religious School meets:

- Thursdays: 4:00–6:00 pm + 1 additional hour of work
- Sundays: 9:00 am–12:00 pm + 1 additional hour of work

The Learning & Inclusion Specialist may work on Sundays only, or both Sundays and Thursdays. In addition to time spent during Religious School, the position includes one hour of planning and collaboration for each day worked. This additional time may be used to work with educators on differentiating their instructional plans and/or communicate with families.

See full job description here.
