Core Features

The course boasts several key features aimed at accelerating a trader's learning and profitability:

- A 20-minute course specifically focused on fractal trading strategies.
- Exclusive livestreams showcasing real-time trade demonstrations.
- Personalized one-on-one sessions for individual guidance.
- Access to a day trading community.
- A ticket system for addressing specific trading questions.

Course Content and Approach

The central promise of the Ascend Trading Course is mastering fractal trading quickly. The core learning material is delivered in a focused 20-minute course. This is supplemented by practical application via livestreams where trades are demoed in real-time. It's a combination of foundational knowledge and observable strategies.

Community and Support

A significant emphasis is placed on the community aspect of the course. Participants join a "vibrant day trading community" and can interact with a team including Atrain, Amanda, Goose, and BaoT. The ticket system provides a direct channel to address trading-related inquiries. Positive reviews consistently highlight the supportive and active nature of the team.

User Reviews

The course has garnered a very high rating of 4.98 out of 5 from 50 total reviews.

- One user reported making $4.1k in payouts within the first two weeks of joining.
- Multiple users highlight quickly passing proprietary firm (propfirm) account challenges, with one passing both a 25k and 50k account within a single day.
- A common sentiment expressed by reviewers is that the course delivers on its promises, and the strategies are highly effective – even exceeding expectations after trying many other approaches.
- Reviewers frequently praise the support and activity of the team and community.
- Several reviews emphasize the potential for high-probability trade setups using fractal strategies taught in the course.

Creator Background

The course was developed by Atrain, who joined the platform in December 2022. Atrain states the goal of Ascend Trading Premium is to empower traders offering signals, coaching, and a supportive community to help traders succeed, regardless of experience level.

Pricing

The cost of the Ascend Trading Course is $4.1 for a one-time purchase. This provides access to all course materials.
