Fraymakers Art Collab Doc!

(Ran by Car5yn)

(Contact me for questions on Discord: @car5yn)

Hello, fellow Fraymakers! Welcome to the Fraymakers Art Collab information document.

This is a fun project to celebrate 2 years of Fraymakers official Steam release! It doesn't matter if you're an artist or not, you are not going to make fun of the quality of others' art and discriminate against you for a lack of "artistic ability". Right, everyone? Anyways, here are the rules for the collab that you should be aware of:

Character/Assist Selection (Base Cast)

Characters and Assists will be given to an artist on a first come first serve basis. If you do not get the character/assist you like, don't worry, you get to pick your top 5 choices for characters/assists that you'd like to draw. If all of the characters that you asked for have already been selected, I will make sure to contact you to make another selection. Here is the Google Form where you can pick your characters to draw:

(This form is done as every base cast character and assist has been assigned to a different artist. (Thank you guys btw) However, if you see that a character has been dropped by someone who doesn't want to draw them anymore, then let me know by dm-ing me on discord (@car5yn) that you would like to take that character.

Character/Assist Selection (Custom Content)

For custom content character picks are a little different then the base cast character selections. You still will fill in your top 5 picks (With your 1st pick being the character you want the most, and then is descending order) however here are some rules you should know before making your picks.

1. You're allowed to draw up to 3 custom content characters (even if you've already gotten a base cast character to draw) but you're not required to draw 3 different characters (Draw only 1 if you'd like)
2. You're allowed to draw copyrightable characters (Non-OC characters are allowed basically)
3. Your character pick must be on the Fraymakers Workshop in some capacity. If your character is in the workshop as a character, assist, or even background character on a stage, then you're good to pick them. If you know that the character you're picking has multiple different versions on the workshop, make sure that you put the creator's name in you're response (For example: Because there are a ton of Goku's on the workshop, make sure to credit the one you're drawing like this "Goku (Nuova and Peace)")

4. You're allowed to pick characters that you haven't made for the Fraymakers Workshop. However, if the creator of that character would like to draw their character, then you must give them that character to draw and find a new one if you'd like. (You're able to edit your responses but make sure to contact me when you do so (@car5yn))
5. If the character is an OC that isn't made by you and isn't a character under any sort of copyright, you must contact the original owner of the character and send a screenshot that they have allowed you to draw their character (@car5yn).
6. If you are unsure if a creator of a mod would like to let you draw their character and you asked but if they don't respond in over a week after asking, it is then implied that it is ok to draw their character. (This applies to both OC's and non OC characters)
7. You are allowed to draw characters that are still a WIP, as long as they are released by the art collab's deadline of Jan 4th 2025.
8. You are allowed to make a drawing that features characters that aren't in the workshop, as long as they are very much related to the character that is in the workshop, whether it is by series or OC lore, etc. (Limit to 1 additional character for art like these) (Note, I'm only allowing 10 people to draw these double character but 1 not from workshop drawings so please tell me that you're adding an extra character to a drawing)
(This is a very complicated rule so if you have any questions about it, pls ask me (@car5yn))

Now that you understand what to do, here is the google form Custom Content Picks:

Canvas Size and Artstyle

There is no limitation on art style whatsoever. You can do pixel art, digital, watercolor, and claymation. Anything at all. However, your submission must have a transparent background. So if you draw on paper, you must digitally cut out your drawing and send it to me with a transparent background. In addition, your canvas must be no bigger than 1000x1000 pixels, just so I can make sure that all of the images in the end will fit into 1 large canvas, without all of the drawing being too compressed if I need to shrink them down. Also, submit your drawings to me through discord so I can confirm it is completed. (@car5yn)

Drawings Allowed and Not Allowed

Allowed to include	Not allowed to include
~Any character/assist that is on the Fraymakers workshop before Jan 5th, 2025 ~Fun poses and art styles ~Art that features characters that aren't in the workshop, as long as they are very much related to the character that is in the workshop, whether it is by series or OC lore, etc. (Limit to 1 additional character for art like these) (Note, I'm only allowing 10 people to draw these double character but 1 not from workshop drawings so please tell me that you're adding an extra character to a drawing) ~Collaboration drawing between 2 artists featuring no more than 2 characters that have been claimed by at least 1 of the artists doing something together (while also staying within the canvas size and requirements) ~Characters being silly (silliness is good)	~Art that doesn't have a transparent background, is more than 1000x1000 pixels, or has characters that are cut off by the frame to prevent awkwardness ~Any art that has been made using AI ~Any characters that you haven't claimed or are not on the Fraymakers Workshop ~Any NSFW 18+ themes (if you're not sure if something is ok, just ask me (@car5yn)) ~Any art that is made to hate on any fraymakers mod, person, or group of people.

When is it due?

The plan is to have the art be due by January 4th, as that gives me time to organize everything for the final mural and hopefully have a video done by January 18th (The date of the anniversary). However, feel free to ask for a time extension if you need one.
