

STREAMS

(Students' Conference on Islam and Muslim Societies)

Thursday, 22 June 2023

Universitas Islam Internasional Indonesia (UIII)

What is 'Streams'?

Streams or Students' Conference on Islam and Muslim Societies is an event organized by the Faculty of Islamic Studies of the Indonesian International Islamic University (UIII) Depok. The event is designed to provide a platform for students to present their research and receive feedback from their peers and experts in their fields.

The conference will select the best 30 master's and PhD students around Indonesia and overseas to present a variety of fields under Islamic studies, such as (but not limited to) Islamic legal discourse, Islamic intellectual history, political Islam, theology and philosophy, digital Islam and humanities, and anthropology of Muslim societies.

Why Should I Join the Streams?

The participants will gain mentoring as well as valuable and constructive feedback from the experts at the Faculty of Islamic Studies UIII, such as Prof. Noorhaidi Hasan, Dr. Syafiq Hasyim, and Dr. Yanwar Pribadi (the full members of the Faculty of Islamic Studies UIII can be accessed through the following link: <https://uiii.ac.id/research/find-a-researcher>) and also our guest speakers, Muhammad Riza Nurdin, Ph.D. (Ritsumeikan University, Japan) and Irma Riyani, Ph.D. (UIN Sunan Gunung Jati, Bandung). The event will also offer an avenue for the participants to grow their networking and learn about the most recent research trends and advancements in their respective fields. Not only that but also the three best presenters will also get rewards from the Faculty of Islamic Studies UIII.

As a selected/invited participant, you will receive the following:

- Mentoring to improve the quality of your research
- Networking with prominent scholars in Islamic Studies

- Certificate
- Accommodation (2N/1D)
- UIII scholarship information
- Conference souvenir kit
- Rewards for the three best presenters:
  - ❖ The 1st winner: IDR 3,000,000
  - ❖ The 2nd winner: IDR 2,000,000
  - ❖ The 3rd winner: IDR 1,000.000

Am I eligible? How do I get involved?

The primary targets of participants for the conference are graduate students pursuing a master's or doctoral degree in the fields of Islamic studies or other related fields, such as social sciences and humanities, as long as the research is on Muslim societies.

The Streams organizing committee welcomes extended abstracts (individual work) within 300-500 words in English or Arabic. The abstract must clearly address the following aspects:

a. Problem statement b. Significance of study c. Research question d. Main argument e. Methodology; along with 3-5 keywords and 150 words (max) short biography.

The participants should arrange their own transportation to the UIII campus in Depok, West Java. The committee will only provide accommodations at the UIII apartment for the participants.

Dates and More Information

The abstract and the short bio should be submitted via: <https://bit.ly/streams2023> by 09 June 2023 at the latest.

Once selected, you will be invited to attend a one-day conference at the UIII campus in Depok on Thursday, 22 June 2023, from 08.00 AM – 05.00 PM (Western Indonesia Time).
