

Digital Storytelling Community

Digifest 2025

Imagine

Think of a personal story you would be willing to share about a transformational moment you experienced. It could be something to do with work, learning, or not.

Create

Pick up to 3 images that somehow illustrate up important aspects or moments of your story.

Choose a word that sums up the meaning behind your story

Share

Take a selfie with your chose images and the written keyword

Share with other people at the stand or via social media using the hashtag #digistories

Question for reflection

How much difference does it make to telling your story that some of these images are taken by people and some created using AI?
