

MarySue Harris received an Honorary Membership to the Lincoln Music Teachers Association at their September 28, 2022 General Membership Meeting where they celebrated LMTA's 80th Anniversary and the LMTA Music Outreach 25th Anniversary.. Vicki Harris accepted her plaque while MarySue watched online from her home in Portland. Left to right LMTA Membership Chair Cindy Matz, LMTA President Krista Hafez Clark and Vicki Harris.

MarySue has been a long-time LMTA member and has served in many capacities on the Board of the Lincoln Music Teachers Association and Nebraska Music Teachers Association well as the Lincoln Symphony Guild. She is a member of the Lied Piano Circle and a major supporter of the LMTA Music Outreach Program which offers low-cost lessons, instruments and educational materials to children in need. She has also supported many community projects including the Food Bank and Lincoln City Library. The MarySue Harris Endowment through the Music Teachers National Association (MTNA) now funds three $5000 scholarships for young studio owners each year.

Honorary LMTA membership is limited to those who have given distinguished service to LMTA and the community over the years and have been selected by the LMTA Board.
