

Starting Pitcher	Analysis
Casey Kelly	Sporting a sub-3.00 FIP and is clearly under-priced, I'm all in
Hyun Jong Yang	Not a great matchup but Yang is one of the top arms in the KBO, it should be easy to fit him in if y
Warwick Saupold	I think Kelly has a higher ceiling which is why he is my top arm tonight, but Saupold is as safe as
Yong Chan Lee	I really only "love" 3 pitchers tonight but I am willing to attack SK in GPPs even with a lackluster.
First Base	Analysis
Jose Fernandez	.531 wOBA this season with a near .255 ISO, the on base ability makes him a nightly priority
ByungHo Park	He's back on the sheet with Kiwoom as my top stack, and you can fit him in with Fernandez if yo
Roberto Ramos	Even though I like Saupold tonight I will not fade him at his price
Second Base	Analysis
Joo Hwan Choi	Him being 2.5K on DK is as bad as Ramos price
Min Woo Park	He's also under $4K so it's pretty clear you can spend down here regardless of your stack
Chi Hong An	I actually have Lotte in my top stacks tonight and An provides upside with his legs that I like
Third Base	Analysis
Suk Min Park	Easily my favorite 3B tonight and a core play for me
Kyoung Min Hur	Jamming in as much Doosan exposure will be the chalk route again
Jeong Choi	My nightly HR one off, you guys all know that by now
Shortstop	Analysis
Ha Seong Kim	Hasn't been an on base machine but is sporting a big .211 ISO
Jae Ho Kim	Cheap exposure to the heart of the Doosan order
Taylor Motter	His numbers are really bad this season, but it also comes with some expected BABIP positive re
Outfield	Analysis
Jae Hwan Kim + Kun Woo Park	I'm packaging them together because it's obvious, you can fade Park in GPPs once again
Sung Bum Na	Anything under 5K I'm considering a discount for him
Jung Hoo Lee	His price should keep the ownership down and I think you can use him as a one off if stacking D
Jun Woo Jeon	He is the best player on this Lotte team, but I still would probably only target bats here if going w
Aaron Altherr	He's started to heat up recently and that makes the price easier to swallow
Stacks	Analysis
Kiwoom Heroes	Gyu Kim has given up 6 HRs this season and you have to think they come in lower owned than 1
Doosan Bears	They are the chalk team pretty much nightly, and they get another righty tonight, stackable in all
NC Dinos	They're just a peg behind Doosan for me, you can always pivot here in GPPs
Lotte Giants	This is the pure GPP stack of the night, I don't think their offense is very good but they are implie
