

Symposium Campanum, 2022
Gender, Money, and Society in the Roman World
Organizers: Kristina Milnor and Virginia Campbell

MONDAY, November 7

9:00 - 10:00; 10:00 - 11:00 (coffee); 11:15 - 12:15 (12:30 lunch)

- Clare Rowan, University of Warwick, 'Female token issuers and identifying female euergetism in Rome and Ostia'
- Mira Seo, Yale NUS College, "Money Talks: a Male Poet Addresses his Female Patron"
- Kristina Milnor, Barnard College, "Poppaea Note, Dicitia Margaris, and Female Financial Relationships"

1:30 - 2:30; 2:30 - 3:30 (coffee); 3:45 - 4:45 (drinks, dinner)

- Virginia Campbell, University of Birmingham/The Open University, 'Server or Sex Worker?: Women in the Graffiti of Pompeii's Bars'
- Claire Holleran, University of Exeter, 'Female Poverty in the Roman World'
- Annalisa Marzano, University of Bologna, TBA

TUESDAY, November 8

9:00 - 10:00; 10:00 - 11:00 (coffee); 11:15 - 12:15 (12:30 lunch)

- Anise Strong-Morse, Western Michigan University, "Multiply-Married Matrons And Their Money"
- Jinyu Liu, Depauw University, "Mobility, Women, and the Marriage Market in the Roman West (1st - 3rd centuries)"
- Lisa Mignone, NYU-ISAW, "Rome's Elite Matrons of 207 BCE"

1:30 - 5:00 Field trip to Stabian villas / museum