

Cabin Fever: Collab Fic

Rules:

Give out your character's information (name, age (must be 18 or older) , appearance, personality, etc.) and how you want your character to be transformed, this is to have all information in one place because I can't keep track if I keep going back and forth.

Character Sheet

1. Kinzie/Pen (Protagonist), age: young adult, gender: F, appearance: black hair, purple eyes, light tan skin, wears white, black, and shades of purple, has horns and tail that can be hidden at will. Is a nice person who gets suspicious of things when things go wrong. Portrayed by JBK
Transformation: After everyone else, but Harper, got turned into objects, Kinzie had discovered who might be behind the transformations, none other than Harper herself. However, before Kinzie could do anything drastic, Harper threw a syringe filled with ink and tf with PMC ensues.
Post-TF: After Kinzie was transformed, he realized that he still had part of his mind left, with two sets of memories. He also started to feel like hanging out with Eraser and Blocky as well.
2. Alexis/Match, age: 24, gender, trans F, appearance: brown hair, purple eyes, very pale skin, wears band clothing (Radiohead, System of A Down, Lingua Ignota), a white sweater, and a short-ish skirt. Has pillow-esque nubs that can be hidden at will. (I don't think Pillow can be present here for lore reasons, so just assume she just has those) she's morbid, eccentric yet laid back, is obsessed with media (the OSC, Radiohead, Nero's Day at Disneyland, and numerous one-hit wonders), can be a bit all over the place (not to a concerning degree, but more that she goes in and out of moods), and had a very rough life (frequently bullied for being on the autism spectrum). She's very introverted yet extroverted (if she gets close to you, she'll talk your ear off abt BFDI and how unique her music taste is). Portrayed by furnx Transformation: Alexis is hanging out with Rebecca and Carmilla, discussing music and their situation when they come across a door with Rebecca's name on it. Deciding to test their luck, all three of them go in, but the robotic arms mistake Alexis for Rebecca, and drags her in, locking the other two out. They're forced to watch as Alexis is repeatedly impaled by wood and TFed while a hypnosis video plays - she almost falls entirely into Match's brain, but a rogue piece of wood stops the video, making her keep some of her own brain, although (Rebecca) and Carmilla do note that she's acting a bit more ditzy, using "like" as a vocal tic, and is a bit more eager regarding hanging out with Marie. After her TF, she's in agony, but trying to not let Harper know she hasn't MCed. She's dropping vague hints to Needle, but no one else.

3. Harper Elizabeth Crystalline/Announcer (antagonist), ageless (is a spirit/demon creature), agender (they/them) Appearance: glossy light blue hair, slightly vivid blue eyes, vitiligo-skin (dark tan with light tan spots), wears a gray hoodie with a pink and blue diamond design, along with navy blue jeans and purple sneakers, has cobalt-blue horns and a flexible yet sharp tail. Personality: Harper is a cluster of organized chaos and mischief. They are also a sadist, and find satisfactory feelings in others' pain. Harper really likes the OSC, Jack Stauber, TV Girl, mазie, indie and soft rock. They also have ADHD, and are very fidgety at times. (I forgot to add this): She also has magic powers (she's a spirit, duhh) and when she uses it, a light blue glow(same color as her eyes) emits out of her hands, as a sliver of red appears in her pupils. Portrayed by piko_pikohere
Transformation: After transforming everyone, Harper is driven insane to the point where they forcefully transform themselves. They had no choice but to put themselves over the BEAUTIFUL PAIN everyone else had been through. Taking an electrical wire, they violently stab it into their arm, which triggers the TF. (Also, PMC!)

4. Sakana Aqua Waterz/Leafy | age 18. Demigirl (She/They). Appearance: Medium length white fluffy hair, skin color is vitiligo, wears a white eyepatch, shirt is a green T-shirt that has a fish on it. She wears black shorts. She has pastel blue colored tiger shark ears and tail, along with a striped fin on her back. Her eyes are cyan while her pupils are star-shaped. She has a bandage around her left leg. She also wears a red bandanna with a white dead fish imprinted on it. Sakana is a very kind and sweet creature but also a bit suggestive (DONT COME AFTER ME-), she likes nature and rainy days. She likes to make peace with others, having a caring and kind-hearted nature. She is a therian, she likes fishes and anything nature-like, she listens to kittydog's music, she also has autism. (Portrayed by _sakana_waters_)
Cause of TF: Sakana was just with Rebecca, simply looking around. But then, she spots a growing plant nearby, and she was interested. As soon as she got closer to it, a plant root suddenly stabs her in the arm and injects her with plant cells. That triggered the TF. (PMC)

5. Liam/Flower | Age:20,Gender:M,Sex:Straight Appearance:Brown hair, Brown eyes, Slim build, No facial hair, Pale skin, Wears a dark blue hoodie with the hood on;A cyan t-shirt underneath of the hoodie, Grey sweatpants, black gloves, & laceless blue shoes.

Others: Very Curious, Can be considered nosy, Timid, Very talkative after getting to know people (likes to talk a lot & about personal interests, etc.) Makes cheesy dad jokes, Optimistic even in bad situations (That doesn't mean that he is unable to lose hope), Quite sarcastic, Can be impatient, Tries to be friendly with everyone, Knows some info about Object shows but not to the level as a fan would, Has anxiety (Anxious about: upsetting people, worsening situations, etc.) suffers from mental breakdowns in very tense situations or being overwhelmed, Is Autistic, It's hard for him to respond, explain & express what is on his mind, Has a habit of wandering around for no particular reason, His major interests include: Astronomy; Drawing art; & Playing video games. | The Lead-Up: Later on, Liam becomes a lot more paranoid with the thought of suffering identity death haunts his mind but he tries his best to remain positive in a bad situation. He has become traumatized from seeing the transformations with his own eyes. He tries to help the people who suffered PMC as much as he can. He figures out Alexis wasn't fully MCed but he stayed quiet after realizing why she pretends to be MCed. He was almost transformed twice, once with a pink sweater conveniently placed when he drenched in soda, then again with an infectious flower in a garden (Would have suffered a similar fate to Sakana if he fell for the trap) but, he figured out they were traps and avoided being transformed. Portrayed by Regret69011 || The Transformation: After surviving 2 transformation attempts, He's now fearful of everything & everyone. He goes outside and sits on a bench to try to calm down. As he observes the particularly thick fog of the day, a syringe strikes his neck from the mist. After feeling the syringe inject the serum into his body, He begins to experience a panic attack as he realizes what is going to happen to him. He or she now tries to call for help during the gorey transformation but his lungs are completely crushed leading to no one to hear him. || Post-Transformation: Due to the serum being faulty, most of the mental transformation doesn't occur except for some new memories & personality changes. Her personality slightly changes because of the PMC, changes included: Outbursts of anger, Mixed feelings about her new form, an irrational fear of insects, & A growing interest in clothes design. She immediately has an identity crisis after her transformation but, she eventually fully accepts her gender and partially accepts her being an object after a while. She still tries to cling on to her past like wearing her old hoodie.

6. Carmilla/Rocky, age 22. Gender: M. Appearance: Tallish guy with brown hair that reaches down to his shoulders. He wears a brown trenchcoat with a random band tee (usually from Green Day, MCR, SlipKnot, or any other emo/punk/metal bands) and black dress pants. He has black worn down converses. Personality: Usually a pretty chill guy, has a bad RBF. If you get him to start talking, he'll never stop. Though, he fiercely defends the people he cares about. ||

TF: He was out walking one day, most likely just trying to grab some boba or something when Harper throws a damn rock at his head. It hits him pretty hard and he ends up just going home because. Who wouldn't. No matter what he takes though, it won't stop hurting, and eventually he starts getting nauseous. After some Intense Vomiting and TFing, PMC starts to kick in lol. He's sorta still himself with some of his memories, but he's Stupid now.

7. Jairus/David, age 22, gender M, appearance: blue shirt, navy shorts, dark brown hair, red sneakers, skin a slight dark tan. personality: usually kind but breaks easily due to anger issues or pressure. How: They do a drawing challenge out of boredom, unfortunately, Jairus was lazy so he drew a stickman. But then the paper merged with his body. Knowing what was to come he quickly removed his red sneakers as it was from his grandparents. Transformation The mind change happened, but he had 2 sets of memories. He was able to show he still had human memories by wearing his red sneakers, or atleast, tried to, bc of his legs. He also tries finding spare clothes but was out of luck so he only had the sneakers to show his life still with him.

8. Fabian/Needle, age 23, gender fluid, lesbian (IDK if this is important, but imma add it just in case). Appearance: Fabian comes from a species of objectoid creatures (creatures that are similar in appearance to sentient objects — like the ones in BFDI or II — but aren't actually objects) known as slimemorphs, which are shapeshifting creatures whose base form is that of a ball of colored slime with arms and legs that stand at an average height of about 3'6. Fabian is a dark aqua-green slimemorph with aqua green arms and legs, aqua green eyes, sharp teeth, and stands at a height of 3'4". In their agitated form (all slimemorphs have an agitated form + they only take this form when pushed to their boiling point or in life or death scenarios.), they gain claws on their hands and feet, as well as a slimy, reptilian tail, and a pair of s-shaped horns that sprout out of the top of their head. Abilities: aside from being able to morph their entire body into anything biological and mortal (nothing, mechanical, or immortal, ghosts, or truly inanimate objects) and agility, they can morph different body parts separately (ex: morphing their arms into wings, or melee weapons). They also have a necklace with a crystal pendant that allows them to travel across the multiverse, they can not do so without this crystal hence why they're so defensive over it (taking this necklace would result in Fabian getting angry). Personality: Fabian is an energetic, chaotic and mischievous slimemorph who enjoys messing around with those around them as well as traveling and exploring the multiverse often for the hell of it due to their thrill seeking nature. They're also intelligent and sly, often using their knowledge on different people and creatures, as well as their ability to shape-shift into other living mortal beings, either to pull lighthearted pranks, or to get themselves out of trouble or harm's way. Despite this they're honest and friendly with those they consider as close friends, and are even protective of those they've grown fond of. Almost as protective as they are with the necklace that they wear.

Extra info: Fabian is aware of what sentient objects are considering that they came from a universe where their species lived alongside them, and they're aware of BFDI as well as object shows as a whole because again they enjoy visiting other universes and messing around with their inhabitants in their free time. They also enjoy drawing, coloring, and swimming. Portrayed by BirbsandDogos7153

Background/Lead up: Fabian was goofing off with their friends, Xenon (a 24 year old dark green slime morph with green eyes and limbs), Pale (A 22 year old light blue slimemorph with blue eyes and limbs) and Amber (a 23 year old amber-colored slimemorph dark orange eyes and limbs) when they receive an invitation that somehow traveled across the multiverse to their specific location that simply reads "You've Been Invited ;)" with a picture of what looks to be a cabin in the middle of the woods. Confused, curious, and slightly unsettled by the vagueness of the invitation they bid their farewell to pack what they felt like they needed; a charger for their phone, a dog plush that Amber had given them on their 16th birthday, etc, before traversing the multiverse to find the universe in which said invitation had originated from. They arrive a bit late since they had to manually look for the universe AND location. The next morning, they wake up to find that their necklace had been stolen, and are PISSED, they then spend their time in the cabin both searching for their necklace and interrogating the others as calmly as they can.

Transformation: Upon finding the culprit, Harper, they attempt to calmly ask for their necklace back (although through gritted teeth) hoping that they would give it back in one piece. However, when they break the crystal on the necklace, Fabian flies into a fit of rage and gets into a physical and violent fight with Harper. During the fight, Harper sends a barrage of needles at Fabian, which they try to block by morphing their hands into shields, but the needles pierce through the shield and hit them, which triggers the tf. Fabian panics during this and tries to regain control of their powers, but to no avail. || Post-Transformation: Almost immediately after the TF, Fabian sits there for a moment to try and process what had just happened, the fact that they had not only lost their ability to shapeshift, but also the fact that they would never be able to go home. Over the next few days following the TF, she doesn't talk to anyone, and could often be heard crying herself to sleep at night, mourning the fact that she may never see her old friends again. Sure, she REMEMBERS being friends with Coiny and Pin, but it's just not the same. She would often be seen scrolling through her phone, looking over old images and videos, reminiscing about the old times. She eventually decides to try and "get back into character" by joining freesmart. (They hide the dog plush from them because they know how they are).

9. Sleepy/Blocky, age 20, demi-girl, panromantic/aegosexual. Appearance: A lady with pure silvery-white hair with Bob Cat ears and tail along with a pure cyan cross in her hair. She wears a dark gray suit with a dark aquamarine scarf and flat heels. Her eyes are a frosty, dark, winter blue and she wears gloves. Powers: She has amazing speed and agility, along with seeing very clearly in the dark thanks to her cat-like eyes. She can also jump up very high, along with landing perfectly on her feet. Background/Lead-up: Sleepy was wandering around in the Tundra near her own cabin until she suddenly noticed a letter at her front door when she got back. Curious, she picked up the letter and read it thoroughly, realizing she'd been invited to some cabin. Feeling a bit of suspicion, she hesitated...but decided to go anyway. Once she arrived, she thought that nothing bad could actually happen like in those TF fanfics, but she would soon be dead wrong. Cause of TF: After a bit of investigating, she'd quickly realize that she immediately needed to get out of here so she wouldn't risk getting TF'd. However, Harper would quickly catch onto her plan, and then threw a block into the back of her head, sealing her fate. Post-TF: At first, he'd be VERY confused, especially with the fact he was straight up turned into a guy. After a while, it'd be confirmed that he still has most of his sanity left, along with his memories...but he has also grown pretty sadistic, and a pretty big prankster as well. He'd play harmless pranks on the others, but sometimes he'd go a little too far and accidentally hurt someone...but when he realizes that, he'd quickly apologize and say that it was unintentional, not meaning any harm. He'd remember being friends with other objects like Eraser and Pen, and when they arrive, Sleepy/Blocky can't help but find himself interacting with them and talking.

10. Keisha/Firey, age 24, paragirl, aroace. Appearance: Medium-long coffee-brown hair, yellow eyes and vitiligo (tanned skin with lighter patches). Wears a smiley crop top with black camo shorts and dark grey heels. Personality: Keisha is bold and daring, and she can burn mad as a flame if you're not careful. She can get herself into the most dangerous situations and come out unscathed. Background: She was living in an urban city named Viviste, until an invite was slipped into her apartment in a forty story building. Taking it seriously, she drove all the way to the cabin in her custom yellow Tesla. Cause of TF: Apparently, Harper knew her for a long time, and knew she would try to escape in the boldest, daring way possible. So they set up a trap that Keisha would DEFINITELY fall for... Later on, Keisha was still prowling for the exit, until seeing a door engulfed in flames. Due to her assertive attitude, she tries to leap over the flames and open the door. She succeeds in jumping over, but the door burns up, and to her horror, Keisha realizes that she'd been played. The flames slowly burn her alive. (Hahaha skill issue) + (PMC)

11. Francisco/Coiny, age 18, male, bi. Appearance: A head full of black puffy hair which he refers to as “Fluff”, brown eyes, (tanned skin that at times is lighter when in the water.) Wears a red hood with darker orange highlights when he goes outside, black pants with orange highlights and orange shoes that he got on his birthday! WOAH! Personality: A goofy man child and pretty much a funny and nice guy which he is but most of the time he keeps to himself and acts very shy and calm when he meets new people as he is in this situation. Cause of TF: He after the past transformations has been hiding away in his room all day never leaving and watches many object shows he likes and animate for his show called BFD (Battle For Doggy) but that doesn’t matter as he gets very hungry. He goes out to find himself some food and finds a stand that sells burgers but OH NO! HE DOESN'T HAVE ANY MONEY AT THE MOMENT! So what does he do? Well he luckily finds some money on the ground which are 20 dollars and an orange penny. Huh weird but alright! He gets himself some delicious burgers and starts eating some of it until the penny he got earlier (which is still in his pocket by the way) starts changing him into Coiny and after the physical transformation he is terrified and is sad that he never got to say goodbye to his parents, grandparents, or hell even his brothers who were the closest triplets ever to exist basically but all of that sad goes away as his mental transformation begins. And so children the lesson to learn from this guy is to never join a little CRAPSHOW! THAT WILL KILL YOU! (Anyways that is all)

15. Maria "Marie" Jade Sky/Pencil | Gender: Female | Sex: Bisexual | Age: 20 Bday: 7/19 | Pronouns: She/Her & They/Them | Species: Human (Has Telekinesis) | Appearance: 5'4 medium haired female, with dark orange eyes, light brown hair with pink & silver highlights, a dark red beanie, light orange jacket tied around her waist, reddish pink sneakers, a small silver and yellow choker/necklace, and a light red boho! | Portrayed By: ^Color_Crystals^ | Personality: Generous, Courageous, Kind, Slightly Bossy, A Great Team Leader! Can Be Rude If You Annoy Her Too Much, Is A Top Ranking Dance Club Member In Her School! |

Short Bio: Marie is always ready to face anything! She has multiple friends, classmates, teammates, etc. she can talk to! She learned about BFDI 6 years ago, (when she was 14) and has grown in love with it, and she has expanded to other object shows too! Her favorite character is between Pencil or Firey. She learned that she has telekinesis, and only uses it when she hopes she doesn't get seen using it. |

Cause Of TF: Marie was just trying to pull herself together since she's never seen someone TF right in front of her before, then she sees someone or something walking up to her from behind, it tells her to follow her into a room, it's her room. She enters the room with the person who tells her to just sit on the bed. She nods, then the person turns off the lights, and leaves. Marie sits there in confusion, she sees a small point under her left pillow, it's a pencil point. Which sinks/moves back under the bed. Marie just shrugs it off, and lays down. That was her last move. As the pencil point moves back, but instead of the pillow, it's the center. Where Marie's lying. Then the point RIPS through the bed. Stabbing Marie directly through her chest. She then screams, everyone heard the scream, but 3 specific people/characters, heard her the most. It's Alexis, Greenie, & June/Ivy. As they all try running towards her room and opening the door. It's locked. The room was locked from the outside. By that person. Who she now realizes was Harper. She couldn't tell it was them because it was dark. As she slowly TFs, the door finally opens up. Marie sees them. But their appearances slowly start changing into Match, Bubble & Icy. She also slowly forgets their names. But her hair somehow stays intact, along with her beret. She's still... Alive..? But then her personality and voice quickly shifts to exactly Pencil's voice and personality. Then after a bit, it switches back to hers. (It's like, after every few minutes, her voice & personality swaps between Pencil's & Hers. So basically, PMC)

16. June "Ivy" North/Ice Cube | Age: 19 | Gender: Bigender (Obviously Female) | Bday: August 27

Short Bio: Ivy/June herself works at the circus as a clown with cool tricks. She may not know about BFDI but she was a big fan of it.

Cause of TF: Despite Marie's transformation, She had to save her from Harper but that didn't work well. After Her friends were gone, she felt a trauma running through her head, although she was almost the last one standing, She knew it was useless to be in the cabin anymore. Harper suddenly tied Ivy up, And Threatened kinzie that They will turn Ivy into Ice Cube/Icy If she can't make their decision right, While they're holding a syringe. And When Kinzie Failed, Harper Brutally injected Ivy and was covered in ice, Causing her to end up like Marie.

17. Rebecca/Snowball | gender: Female. Description: a young, cheerful chaotic girl who's around 19, she wears a large, light blue hoodie along with black long pants, her hair has been dyed teal and she wears teal cardboard ears and a cardboard tail, with the tail having a poorly drawn mouth on it to resemble "R"s tail, personality: even though she's usually a chaotic, almost hyperactive woman, there are times where she is able to think straight and make clever decisions on her own whenever she may be in a dangerous situation, the reason why she wears the cardboard ears and tail is because she's trying to imitate "R", who she considers her idol, other than that, she's just the kind of girl to say the most unhinged stuff out of the blue. Cause of TF: After Alexis' TF, Rebecca is a bit of a mess. She barely leaves her room and keeps muttering about how great Alexis was as a friend. This is especially awkward and depressing since Alexis is technically still alive. She eventually just tries to escape...and does. However, it's snowing, and the entrance to the cabin is locked. She freezes up, getting buried in snow. When Harper walks out, they pull Rebecca out, and...she's SB. (full MC)

18. Madeline/Tennis Ball Gender: Female but is She/They. Description: Madeline or Maddie is what she likes to call herself, isn't a real nice person. She was a bully in high school, and she kept that mindset all the way to the ripe age of 20. She likes to make fun of people for not being ugly and once she tried to beat up some guy named Gordon because she thought he was fat and he was also just looking in her general direction but equal rights is equal fights and she was folded like an omelette. She will always try to make everything go exactly her way and if it doesn't she will either fight very badly or start whining about it. Madeline isn't very strong and isn't good at defending herself other than the fact that the sheer amount of obnoxiousness coming out of her mouth is enough to boil the water in someone's brain. Nobody else in the cabin likes her or can even tolerate her except Fabian for reasons not even physicists can find out.

TF: Harper throws a tennis ball at her and it does more damage than expected, lodging it in her eye. The TF takes place quicker because of this, and while she is transforming she starts to feel extremely itchy because of all the fuzz growing on her, to the point of almost scratching out her eyes as that was where the transformation started, however her sight is saved by the fact that her limbs just shrivel up and fall off.

19. OWAKCX/Teardrop | Gender: nonbinary | Desc: in my oc artbook |

20. Greenie/Bubble - 33 year old male tiger

Even though he's 33, he still acts and makes jokes like a teenager. He's very friendly around humans and he's very silly. He doesn't like to wake up in the mornings... or from his naps... except when it's time to eat! He can walk on two legs... but it sometimes can give him cramps in his legs.

For the transformation - He finds bubble solution and... like the silly goose he is... decides to blow bubbles. He grabbed the bubble solution and it spilled into his mouth and nose, causing his painful end... and the start of Bubble! (PMC?)

She likes anime, video games, corndogs, and her phone! Yes, she's now phone-addicted at times. People find her weird with her phone addiction and obsession with awesome modern stuff. As a six-centuries and a half year old witch, she's skilled at making potions, has magic, and has knowledge of anything supernatural and magical.
