

What is the art showcase?

The art showcase is something I host to share everyone's art with my audience on youtube and encourage artists in our community. Artists will draw the character that the showcase is themed around for a chance to win some art and a shoutout. All entries will be shown in a video on my channel with the artists name in the corner. The showcase is still a small thing I do and currently I can only give art to the winning entry. In the future I hope to be able to get art to everyone who places and possibly incorporate multiple tiers of winners. I hope the showcase can grow to become a positive aspect well known in our community. If you have any questions feel free to ask.

THIS SHOWCASES CHARACTER: WHITEOUT

RULES

- You must draw the character that the showcase is for (you can include other characters though)
- Any medium is welcome (traditional, digital, sculpture, animation etc...)
- You can submit anything as long as the focus is the character. (Headshots, scene drawings, something that doesn't even happen in the book. It's up to you though you are more likely to win with something unique rather than a simple headshot)
- Try to make your entry suitable for youtube. I will still consider it for winning if it isn't but it might not be featured in the video.
- All entries must be submitted as an image (except for animation)
- Anyone can join, every age from everywhere. Talent and experience doesn't matter.
- All entries must be submitted to bluesartshowcase@gmail.com I will not accept any submissions in the comment section or left on discord. This is so I don't accidentally miss someone's entry.
- All entries must submit this form with their image

Name:

Would you like your name shown in the video? (a shoutout):

Character/OC:

Social media links you would like shared:

IMPORTANT

The name is for your username, a name I can shout out and give credit for the art too. If you would like to use your real name that's up to you. For example, if you want to be called Purple the Silkwing then use that as your name.

I am also asking for your OC so I know which character you would like me to draw if you win. You can give me a link to an image, send one in the email or simply give me a description if you don't have any art yet. Also it doesn't have to be a WoF OC.

Social media links are for if you'd like them shared if you win first second or third. If you don't want anything shared just don't share any links with me. These links can be for youtube, instagram, deviantart, etc...

First place wins a headshot of their character with a speedpaint while first, second and third will all get their social media shared in the description of the video.

Deadline for this showcase is August 25
