

8-12-12 - Tal and Welcome To PRT!

Tal everyone old and new!!

We have many new people that have joined our family as of late and both Sid and I are here to help get you settled in and with any questions you may have.

Just a reminder if you have not read the sim rules or PRT's Expectations. Please do so as soon as you can. As a reminder, we NEVER OOC in Local nor do we use gestures. Please also reference our website for past notices. Welcome again and if you need anything, please let us know!
