

Personal Sourcing Service Terms & Overview

Thank you for your interest in my personal sourcing services. Below are the details and terms regarding how the process works:

What is Personal Sourcing?

Personal sourcing involves me locating and securing specific items—primarily shoes, but also vintage clothing and bags—on your behalf. I use trusted platforms to ensure authenticity and quality.

Sourcing Fee

- A non-refundable sourcing fee is required to begin the search.
 - This fee does not go toward the final price of the item.
 - The sourcing fee covers the time, effort, and expertise put into locating the product.
 - Payment methods accepted: Zelle or Cash App.

Timeline & Availability

- There is no guaranteed time frame for sourcing, as item availability can vary.
 - Some shoes may be located quickly, while others may take longer depending on rarity, size, and demand.
 - If you need an item by a specific date, it is strongly recommended to inquire months in advance.

International Orders & Additional Fees

- Many items may be sourced from international sellers.
- Please be aware of potential customs or tariff fees upon delivery, which are the buyer's responsibility.
- Complimentary shipping is included from me to you once the item is secured.

Refund Policy

- The sourcing fee is non-refundable, even if the item is not located within your preferred time frame.
- Time and effort are still invested in every request, regardless of the final outcome.

Additional Sourcing

- I can also source vintage clothing, bags, and accessories upon request.
- Multiple items can be bundled into one sourcing package; however, the initial sourcing fee covers only one item.
 - Bundled sourcing fees can be discussed individually.
