AP Seminar PT2 Topic Planning

What is your topic?

What problem exists within your topic?

What is the argument you'd like to pursue within your topic?

Will your topic be tangible enough to argue (as opposed to theoretical / hypothetical / philosophical)?
How so?

What could be a working research question for your topic?

Have you conducted preliminary research on your topic to ensure the content is there to be explored?
Explain.

What potential subcategories could your topic be divided into?

Who are the stakeholders in your argument? (To whom does this topic matter?)

What concerns to you have about your topic?

What stimulus materials will you connect this to? (2)
