

Poison Control: 1-800-222-1222

My 2-year old swallowed _____. What should I do?

Preparing for terrible weather -- Emergency Phone Numbers to Print Out

Is there school? Call 703-658-1274 or click on emergency announcements for Fairfax County Schools--www.fcps.edu. If the children's schools are closed, we are closed. If they are delayed or late, we are on time. We rarely close for rain. We often close for snow. We do not do online classes.

For emergencies that can cause death: 911

Public Safety Non-Emergency: 703-691-2131

Snow Removal - VDOT: 1-800-FOR-ROAD (1-800-367-7623):

email: novainfo@vdot.virginia.gov

For weather and road conditions: visit www.511virginia.org;

follow @511northernva on Twitter;

mobile.weather.gov for smart phones

www.VirginiaDOT.org.

www.noaa.gov

Other problems:

Verizon Customer Service: 1-800-VERIZON (837-4966)"My phone doesn't work. I live at 224 Richmond Hwy #14"

If you see wires on the road --

Dominion Virginia Power: 1-866-DOM-HELP (1-866-366-4357)

"There's a power line down at 2011 River Road"

If you can get internet on your cell phone, you can report that you don't have power or find out if it's back on when you aren't there at

<https://www.dom.com/outage-center/report-and-check-outages>

Washington Gas: 1-844-927-4427

"I smell gas. It may be a gas leak. It's at 21 Maple Avenue."

Fairfax Water: 703-698-5800

"There's no water at 201 Main Drive

(NO Cable TV?) Cox Cable Customer Service: 703-378-8422

"My cable is out."

Don't forget: when the news says a storm is coming, charge your cell phone.

These phone numbers were provided by politician Penny Gross of Mason District