

Disclosure

You deserve to know that your elected officials are working for you. I believe elected officials and candidates for all public offices should be transparent so you can monitor and consider the existence of real or apparent self-interested acts. I make both my campaign finance disclosure and personal financial disclosure easily accessible to voters. This is updated when there are material changes.

Campaign Finance Disclosure

This year, campaign finance reports for school board candidates are due before the election on October 25 and after the election on December 5.

Election Day is Tuesday, November 5.

You can find my campaign finance reports filed with the Kent County Clerk here:
