

2026 Annual OAGCT Convention Exhibitor and Sponsor Prospectus

September 28, 2026

Client Services Center

Lemley Campus of Tulsa Technology Center

Tulsa, Oklahoma

Registration Deadline: August 28, 2026

OAGCT is a not-for-profit volunteer association founded to bring together concerned professionals and other persons interested in gifted, creative, and talented youth for their mutual support and growth.

Our Vision

We envision a point in time when an equitable, appropriate, and challenging education, aligned with potential, is delivered to all children. We envision a time when teachers and parents are trained to understand and reach that potential in the most effective way possible.

Our Mission

- To promote, support, and improve appropriate educational opportunities
- To inform the general public of the needs of gifted, creative, talented youth
- To disseminate news and information of interest and concern
- To foster the professional growth of educators
- To support legislation and funding for programs
- To work in cooperation with and support of the philosophy and goals of NAGC
- To provide a forum for the exchange of information and ideas among the membership

Frequently Asked Questions

Who attends the OAGCT Conference?

District gifted leaders, counselors, teachers, and parents from around the state will gather to network and learn how to better support gifted learners of all ages. Expected attendance is 250-300.

What can I expect?

Exhibitors can expect traffic from attendees looking for resources for teaching, assessment, and professional development. Many will also be interested in extracurricular enrichment opportunities for students and fundraising resources. Attendees will be encouraged to visit all booths to get their exhibitor passport marked to be eligible for a special door prize.

What does the booth fee include?

Your booth fee includes a 5-foot table and 2 chairs and wifi access. There are limited electrical outlets available, so please indicate on the contract if you will require electricity. A Conference program listing is also included in the booth fee for all contracts received by August 28, 2026, listing the company name, contact, address, phone, email, and website address.

How Can I reserve my booth?

Please complete the Exhibitor Contract linked here and then make payment. Booths will be reserved once the payment has been received. Space will be assigned on a first-come, first-served basis. OAGCT reserves the right to decline, prohibit, or cease any exhibit, which, in its judgment, does not align with our mission or is inappropriate.

How can I pay for the booth?

OAGCT accepts payments in the form of a check or debit/credit card.

Card payments can be made at OAGCT.org.

Checks should be made payable to OAGCT and mailed to:
