

Summer Internships

To help foster original local programming, The Groton Channel will be offering two kinds of paid summer internship positions. These will be available to high school aged residents of Groton and students of the Groton-Dunstable High School. For information and application forms, visit thegrotonchannel.org or email info@thegrotonchannel.org.

Applications are due by email or in-person at the Groton Channel Studio (located in the lower level of the Groton Dunstable High School) by Monday, June 2nd.

Project-Based Internship Description:

Candidates are to propose a video project that they would like to produce from concept to cablecast. The selected intern(s) will be expected to have a schedule outlining the weekly commitment and time span of the project. The compensation will be based on that commitment at $12 an hour for up to $1,000. If there are two Producers, the project will be capped at $1,500, and if there are three or more Producers, the project will be capped at $2,000. The interns will have the guidance and supervision of the Groton Channel Staff throughout the production process. The project must be completed prior to the beginning of the school year in the fall.

All kinds of projects are welcome. The intern projects will be selected based on the merits of the project, the intern's enthusiasm for the subject, and the intern's ability to achieve high production values. Some basic knowledge of video production is necessary, but additional training will be provided.

Groton Channel Production Assistant Internship Description:

The Groton Channel will select interns to perform various duties associated with the day-to day operation of The Groton Channel. Duties will include filming, editing, writing, editing, reporting, data entry, and archival work, as well as other related tasks.

The intern will earn $12 an hour up to $1000 for the summer. Candidates must have some relevant experience in either video production or journalism.
