Using WebReports Match, Tournament and Player Reports - Oct 2020

Match

- Create match to match tables of stats for comparison
- Convert these tables to Graphs by Skill to help visualize performance trends

Aggregate Tournament Stats

- Create a group of matches
- Gather matches under that name
- Generate a Report table that compares the stats of each group (tournament to tournament)
- Graph these stats

Player vs Team Average by Match or Tournament and Skill

- Once tournaments are created you can view each players stats and compare it to the team average by skill
- Graph these stats

MATCH TO MATCH COMPARISONS

Select Custom Match/Game Selection button.

Go to the Trend Reports Menu and select Summary by Match.

Then choose Select Matches.

You can select up to 24 matches per report.  This is a limit because of graphing that will follow. You can use the normal WebReports Summary reports to see all of your season matches.

Select Process Report to generate the table:

Select View Graphs to see the trend graphs.

You can use the Skill menu to change the skill you want to graph. Click the Show Stat buttons to turn on and off the specific stats you want to appear on the graph. You can also select the Download as image link to generate an image that you can paste into a report.

TOURNAMENT TO TOURNAMENT COMPARISONS:

FIRST CREATE YOUR TOURNAMENTS

It doesn't need to be a tournament. You can create any grouping of matches. For example: Non-League vs League. First half the season vs second half of the season.

Once you've selected your team in WebReports, select the Custom button:

On this page select the Manage Tournament button:

Select the Create New Tournament button.

Enter a name for the tournament and select OK.

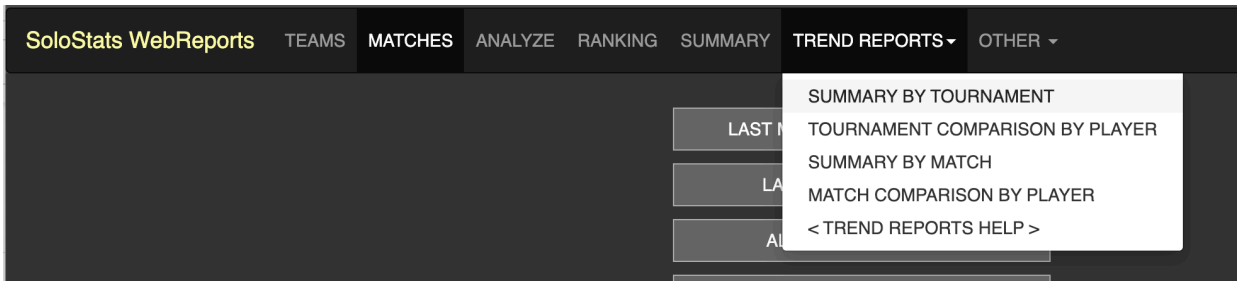

At the end of the Matches page under the Tournament column, select the popup menu and select the appropriate tournament for that match.

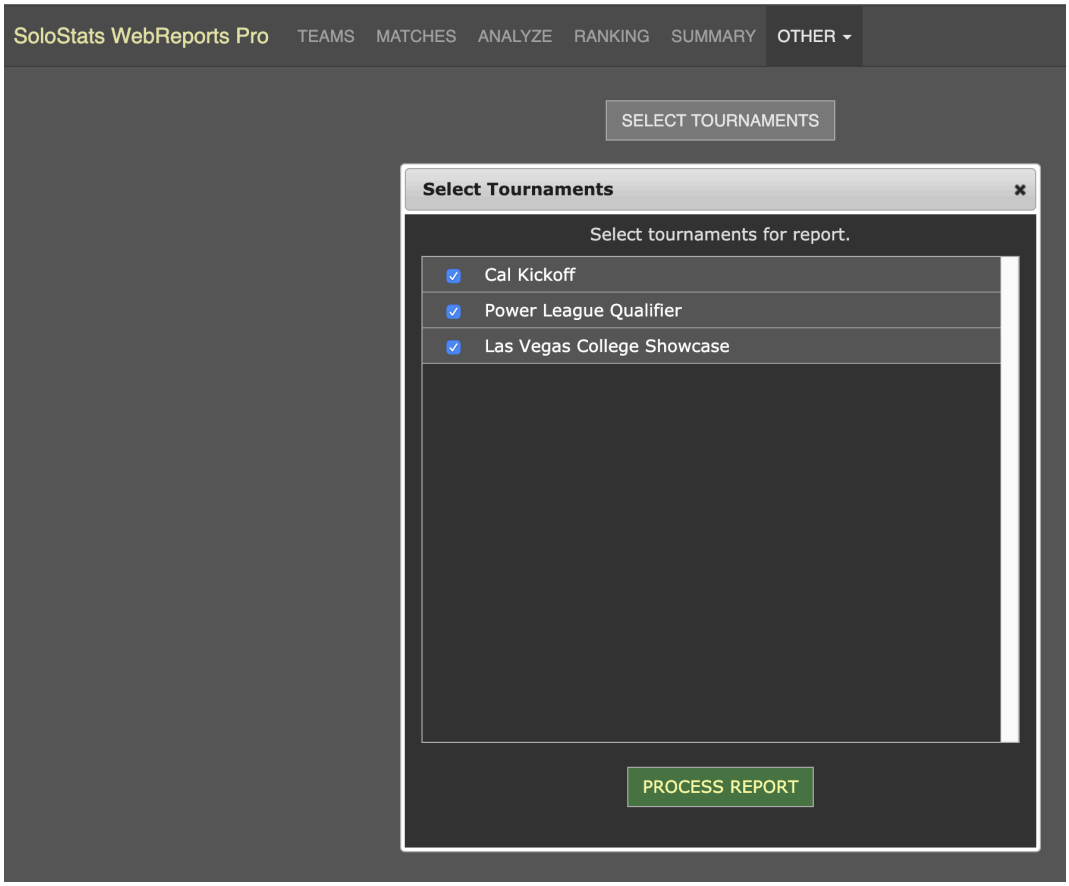

Do this for all the matches that you want to group under a tournament.

To see the Tournament Report, go to the Trend Reports and select Summary by Tournament:

Click the Select Tournament button and check mark the tournaments you want to see in your report.  Then select Process Report.

Your new Tournament comparison report will be generated.
