

0:00 THEME OF SLAYER; KOREAN

0:33 Welcome to the castle super capcom card game cast~! Lets talk some teppen. Woolie has a certain card in his deck from resident evil... Here's this military man with some tyrants.

- 2:12 didn't you play umbrella chronicles...? He's from there.
- 4:02 those dumb tyrant twins, and sergei vladimir is the name.
- 5:00 pat has resident evil lore living rent free inside his head, like leon with a sword and umbrella biohazard countermeasure service to umbrella resident evil countermeasure service
- 6:38 changing your mind with guilty gear lore, and more resident evil give no shits lore
- 8:53 the problem of "how many people lived through the event?" and how to continue plots with multiple events
- - 10:05 the canon bible preventing something, and giving yourself an out by jumping into the lifestream. Can you guess how many times that happened in FF14?
- 12:24 those designs are still bad. But only the second worst design in the series according to pat. Bringing up nyx.
- 15:13 woolie still feels the umbrella chronicles designs are worse. The lack of matching aesthetic to the rest of the series, especially with those sunglasses
- 16:30 but what if you added badonkadonks? And T-series are apparently desexualized in the series. But lady D tho. Those vampire lady standee so you can measure up to her.
- - 18:11 the clap of her asscheeks makes her deaf to one sneaking around
- 18:48 woolie is just done with april fools day. The two types of jokes for april fools: The gut punch or the thing you want but doesnt exist.
- - 20:40 gaming april fools are really effective. Remember those fake fighting game screenshots?
- - 22:00 when companies started doing april fools gags themselves
- - 22:44 afraid if its true, too good to be true, and its actually just coming out today.

- - 24:51 pat announces fornite stream. And then actually does it. Weekly. Also wallstreetbets stonks guy skin

- - 25:20 "platinum games announces-" No shut up

- - - 26:03 World of demons and sol cresta and actually real. And cresta as a series of games

- - - 29:02 everyones still stuck inside...

- - - 29:42 watch them cancel it and release it

WEEK OF THE BEAST LORDS

PAT

29:59 Why did you look at pat so strangely when pat said he was playing kenshi? The reasons why pat decided to play and it being the least fun he's had in a game. Not wanting to do anything because it feels bad to play

- 33:00 The giant jank mess going in, and thinking there would be an appeal to it like the forest but no, its a free roam game. An imagination game

- 35:00 people into kenshi dont remember a world where people aren't into kenshi. ANd woolie thought people were into it unironically.

- - 35:52 pat gets a package, and fedex being a terrible service

- 36:55 a game from the era of zeno clash. It is not old. Just ugly.

- 27:59 was there any fun jank at least? Pat said no. Pat found no unique stuff.

- 39:23 the interface being bad and changing the text size breaks the interface

- 40:03 comparing to S.T.A.L.K.E.R. and rimworld

- 40:55 did someone DM you to play this game? No, just decided to take a look at it because several people asked for it.

- 42:57 what is a sandbox game if not the forest or subnautica? Pat is not suited to the genre apparently

- 44:40 pat is now confused as to how people can like it

45:44 disco elysium final cut is immaculate, and the voice acting adds so much more than he thought. Accidentally redpilling someone and no option to go back

- 48:27 you HAVE to pick a political party. No centrists here

- 49:11 there are going to be parts that are going to be awkward to stream. Its real raw. Did you meet cuno?

- 51:34 how long to beat has got to update their time to beat. Also, pat gives it a 10 bordering on 11

- 52:16 the controller support is terrible

- 53:11 if you plan on LPing it, pat is going communist hobocop. And it's got an amazing amount of replay value. There being only 4 stats and in one playthrough you can only get good at one of them

- 55:56 failure is content

- 57:09 pat would not recommend it to anyone without moral or political flexibility. You can go hyper capitalist and hyper communist. At the same time.

58:42 played monster hunter rise. The game is not finished but its still really good. 5 million copies sold.

59:46 pat got a surprise special guest on fortnite with sphere hunter and talked about how they should add resident evil skins. And pat responds why doesn't he just do this with apex? Apex being a team based game while fortnite is mainly solo

- 1:02:20 cannot play apex solo and not always having someone to play with in apex

- 1:04:14 solo mode so its for sure pat won rather than anyone else carrying him

- 1:05:13 the infinite budget allowing for a map or gameplay change every week or so. The money going into a vault for other games vs. money getting put back in for fortnite

- - 1:07:42 FFXIV's money going into new FF entries instead of back into XIV. And XIV being so successful compared to wow. World of warcraft getting worse every year

- - 1:10:12 parts of MMOs being kind of like a job, but pat enjoying learning the functions of each class of FFXIV

- - - 1:12:14 grinding out the rarest mount in the game. And minh getting a special mount. The amount of work it takes to get certain mounts. Its a group thing.

- - - 1:14:38 woolie cant comprehend the low percentages for drop rates and fighting the same enemy over and over

- - - 1:17:26 you can memorize fight patterns in FFXIV

1:18:15 captain falcon and the winter soldier: not as good as wandavision. Its fine. Pat suspects some reshoots because of corona.

- 1:19:72 the black window trailer and the avengers theme with vocals

- 1:20:52 taskmaster is there. Pat really dislikes this redesign

- - 1:21:57 he might not be a big dumb skeleton because of china.

1:22:51 go check out pat over at patstaresat on twitch, twitter, and youtube!

WOOLIE

1:23:10 punch mom touched persona 4 ultimax

1:29:04 best of paper mario thousand year door with a bunch of new shit in it~! Go check it out.

1:30:06 it takes two, the latest game by Hazelight and mr. F the oscars himself. It seems like a decent length game. A cute and cool platforming game about a couple

- 1:32;15 fun references to different genres. Pat asks whats the likelihood of it ending in murder suicide? And not all relationship problems are equal

- 1:34:10 ballad of sad cafe, there's a lover and a loved

- 1:35:50 pat hopes the answer isn't so obvious or if their relationship is the type that can even be repaired

- 1:36:46 its a solid co-op game, and only co-op. A studio dedicated to couch co-op

- 1:37:56 pat really wants an ending where the fairy goes "Well, this relationship can't be fixed." And more on couch co-op

1:39:32 went back to ultrakill. And how ultrakill's early access works.

- 1:41:12 between last time he played and now he got a new computer, saves transferred over but not settings. Brute forcing without controller aim assist. Bug testing with a controller

1:45:50 tried to play ghostrunner. The game fighting him because it feels like it's built for mouse and keyboard.

- 1:49:02 woolie pulls out the abomination. The tactical assault commander.

- 1:50:21 trying and failing to play it because the controls refuse to work with him

- 1:52:28 woolie boots up the xbox controller on PC is perfect. The port is absolutely trash

- 1:56:25 woolie plans to run it again sometime in the future on PC

- 1:57:54 paying more attention to these kinds of things in the future

1:58:54 Woolie got a package for a kickstarter for street fighter the boardgame, along with some miniatures~! It's a pretty complete roster although its missing some

- 2:01:27 the figures are a range of quality. Ranges from amiibos to bootleg figures. Decals seem off and its mostly just the faces

-2:06:34 woolie will play the game at some point.

2:07:40 go check out woolie over at woolieversus on twitch, twitter, and youtube~! Yakuza is on hiatus due to littleV taking a break.

2:08:40 pat remembers something: He has a game he wants to cover but wont anymore: outriders. The game is constantly on fire due to the servers being over capacity. Look at all those sponsored streams sitting on the login screen. And a hypothetical mention of a DC convention

2:13:42 SPONSOR: BOMBAS

2:16:38 SPONSOR 2: BROOKLINEN
