I Can’t Think Of Any Jokes

I Can’t Think Of Any Jokes.
I Can’t Think Of Any Jokes.
I Can’t Think Of Any Jokes.
I Can’t Think Of Any Jokes.

There’s the one about the dustbins but it’s just a load of rubbish.
If I told you the one about the butter, then you’d only go and spread it.
There’s the one about the high wall but I doubt that you’d get over it.
There’s the one about the non-infectious disease but I don’t think you’d get it.

I Can’t Think Of Any Jokes… (x 4)

The one about the witches kitten is just a little familiar.
If I tell you one about Tolkien, I’ll tell you lots – it’s hobbit forming.
The one about the Hoover sucks. The one about the terrorist tends to bomb.
The one about the thick string’s ropey and the one about the drill is boring.

I Can’t Think Of Any Jokes… (x 4)

I don’t know what you’d make of the one about the Lego.
The one about the hat might be over your head.
The one about the depressive playing clawhammer banjo always frails miserably.
The one about the rich male goose is just propaganda, when all is said and done…

I Can’t Think Of Any Jokes… (x 4)

The one about the conference of retired shoemakers is just a load of old cobblers.
I can’t tell you the one about becoming a large rock until I become a little boulder.
If I told you the one about the unwashed bike, I’d be accused of peddling filth.
The one about the everlasting reggae will ska you for life, or at least until you’re older.

I Can’t Think Of Any Jokes… (x 4)

There are royalties due on the one about the pelican and the bill would be enormous.
I Can’t Think Of Any…
I baulk at the one about the line on the snooker table.
I Can’t Think Of Any…
The one about the roof always gets slated.
I Can’t Think Of Any…
The one about the broken TV aerial always gets a poor reception.
I Can’t Think Of Any…
The one about the cracked mirror doesn’t reflect well on me.
I Can’t Think Of Any…
The one about the capital of Vietnam will only Hanoi you.
I Can’t Think Of Any…

The one about buying a house in Seoul might be a bad Korea move.
I Can't Think Of Any…
The one about the lack of deer is hart-less.
I Can't Think Of Any…
The one about the xx is a little weak. {?}
I Can't Think Of Any…
The one about the archaeologist is just a matter of trowel and error.
