

Practice with uncountable abstract nouns

Exercise 1: Fill in the blanks

Complete the sentences using the correct abstract noun from below:

(knowledge, happiness, information, advice, courage, patience, beauty, wisdom, progress, freedom)

1. She gave me some great _____ about choosing a career.
2. The _____ of the sunset took my breath away.
3. He showed a lot of _____ when he rescued the child from the fire.
4. _____ is more important than wealth.
5. The teacher praised the students for their _____ in learning new concepts.
6. Do you have any _____ about this topic?
7. His _____ helped him make the right decision.
8. We all value our _____ to express ourselves.
9. It takes _____ to deal with small children every day.
10. She found true _____ in helping others.

Exercise 2: Identify the Uncountable Abstract Nouns

Find and underline the uncountable abstract nouns in the sentences below.

1. His kindness to strangers is remarkable.
2. We need more honesty in politics.
3. Their friendship has lasted for years.
4. Hard work leads to success.
5. Her excitement was obvious.
6. I have deep respect for my grandparents.
7. The news brought great sadness.
8. Creativity is essential in problem-solving.

Exercise 3: Correct the Mistakes

Some of the sentences below contain mistakes related to uncountable abstract nouns. Rewrite the incorrect ones correctly.

1. I received a great advice from my mentor.
2. She has many knowledges about history.

3. He made a big progress in his studies.
4. Their friendships are very strong.
5. The teacher gave us useful informations.
6. She gave me many advices on how to study better.
7. His happinesses were evident on his wedding day.
8. We received several informations about the event.
9. He has a deep knowledges of ancient history.
10. I had some wonderful experiences and great funs during my vacation.
11. The honesty is an important quality in a leader.
12. Her progresses in learning Spanish have been impressive.
13. They offered me a good job with many freedoms.
14. I want to gain more wisdoms as I grow older.
15. Can you give me some suggestions and pieces of advices?