Summary:

Claims Israel is committing genocide in Gaza, explicitly comparing Jews to Nazis.

Violation Severity:

- IHRA Definition: ✅ Yes
- Ontario Human Rights Code: ✅ Yes
- Criminal Code: ⚠ Close, but not clear criminal threshold.

Analysis:

Holocaust inversion demonises Jewish victims. Serious antisemitism but borderline criminality unless directly inciting hatred or violence.

The moment the Israeli military targeted the tents of displaced families in an area it had labeled as “humanitarian” and directed them to seek refuge there.

#Breaking | Over 20 charred bodies and dozens injured, mostly women and children, following an Israeli strike on displaced families’ tents in the Mawasi area of Khan Younis, southern Gaza Strip.

Summary:

Shares unverified claims that Israel lured civilians into safe zones to bomb and murder them deliberately (Image #20).

Violation Severity:

- IHRA Definition: ✅ Yes
- Ontario Human Rights Code: ✅ Yes
- Criminal Code (319(2) Wilful Promotion of Hatred): ✅ Likely meets criminal hate propaganda threshold

Analysis:

This allegation, framed without evidence, revives medieval blood libel myths of Jewish child-murder. Highly inflammatory and dangerous.

Replying to @DrLoupis

The Holodomor was a genocide committed by jewish bolsheviks.
This madman was in charge of the genocide.
His name is Genrikh Yagoda. He was jewish.
What a cohencidence he has a Hitler moustache?
To those ignorant people claiming Holodomor wasn't perpetrated by jews.

Summary:

Post claims that Jews, collectively, orchestrated the Holodomor genocide in Ukraine, featuring Genrikh Yagoda with a Hitler moustache.

Violation Severity:

- IHRA Definition: ✅ Yes
- Ontario Human Rights Code: ✅ Yes
- Criminal Code (319(2) Wilful Promotion of Hatred): ✅ Clear criminal hate propaganda

Analysis:

Blaming Jews as a group for mass murder fits every legal test for hate propaganda. This is textbook criminal speech.

#2: Glorification of the October 7 Hamas Massacre

Wael Ramadan's October 7, 2023, X post, "You will never defeat a people striving to be free," with a bulldozer breaching the Gaza-Israel fence, is near-certain. A LinkedIn post by Ramadan, a Pilon School professor, mirrors the exact text and date, suggesting cross-platform sharing. His pattern of celebrating Hamas's attack—documented by advocacy groups and consistent with the bulldozer imagery in their propaganda—seals the case. The post's absence from X likely reflects deletion.

The post where Wael Ramadan said:
"You will never defeat a people striving to be free."

— was posted on October 7, 2023, the same day as the Hamas terrorist massacre of Israeli civilians.

Summary:

On October 7, 2023, as Hamas raped, murdered, and kidnapped Israelis, Ramadan posted:

> "You will never defeat a people striving to be free."

Violation Severity:

- IHRA Definition: ✅ Yes

- Ontario Human Rights Code: ✅ Yes

- Criminal Code (Section 83.221 — Terrorist Advocacy): ✅ Direct criminal offence

Analysis:

Glorifying terrorism is a standalone crime—no university policy shields professors from promoting terrorist attacks.

Summary:

Reshared video explicitly calling Jews “Satanists” and “sub-human,” mocking their intelligence.

Violation Severity: High-level calls Jews Satanists, Sub-human. Listen to the link.

- IHRA Definition: ✅ Yes
- Ontario Human Rights Code: ✅ Yes
- Criminal Code (319(2) Wilful Promotion of Hatred): ✅ Clear criminal hate propaganda

Analysis:

Open dehumanisation of Jews as Satanic and inferior. No grey area. This is among the clearest, most severe breaches of hate crime law.

Conclusion

Wael Ramadan’s conduct meets and exceeds the legal threshold for criminal hate propaganda in multiple posts.

He continues to teach without discipline.

Paul Finlayson, despite no violations, has suffered career, mental health, and reputational destruction.

This contrast will be the foundation for a Section 15 Charter Challenge and broader public exposure of institutional antisemitism at the University of Guelph-Humber and Humber College.

The difference between hate propaganda and “vanilla” antisemitism (i.e., more common, every day or non-criminal expressions of anti-Jewish bias) is legal, intensity-based, and often contextual. Here’s the breakdown:

Separation Between Hate Propaganda and Vanilla Anti-Semitism.

1. HATE PROPAGANDA

(Criminal Offence in Canada)

Definition:

Speech or material that willfully promotes hatred or violence against an identifiable group, or advocates genocide.

Governed by:

- Sections 318–320 of the Criminal Code of Canada

Key characteristics:

- Promotes hatred or violence toward Jews (or any other protected group)
- Often involves dehumanisation, Holocaust denial, blood libel, calls for genocide, or glorification of terrorist attacks.
- Must be intentional and public
- Is prosecutable — can lead to criminal charges, arrest, fines, and jail time

Examples:

- Saying “Jews should be exterminated”
- Glorifying October 7 as “resistance” while celebrating murdered civilians
- Calling Jews “sub-human” or “Satanists”
- Holocaust inversion that equates Jews with Nazis in a way that incites hate

- Posting images suggesting Jews deliberately murder children (blood libel)

Threshold: Very high but clearly defined in law. It must be public, intentional, and hateful.

2. “VANILLA” ANTISEMITISM

(Usually not criminal)

Definition:

Discriminatory attitudes, stereotypes, slurs, or tropes about Jews that are offensive, bigoted, or harmful, but don’t meet the threshold for criminal prosecution.

Governed by:

- Ontario Human Rights Code
- University/Workplace Human Rights Policies
- IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism

Key characteristics:

- Often includes:
    - Stereotyping Jews as rich, manipulative, or dual-loyalty citizens
    - Claiming Jews exaggerate the Holocaust
    - Singling out Israel in disproportionate or conspiratorial ways
    - Saying Jews control media, finance, etc.
- Can still create a “poisoned environment” under human rights law
- Is often subject to civil, not criminal, remedies (e.g., HRTO complaints, institutional discipline)

Examples:

- Saying “Jews run Hollywood”
- Mocking Jewish rituals or identity
- Accusing Israel of genocide without evidence but not explicitly calling for violence
- Equating Zionism with racism across the board

Threshold: Lower — often punishable through human rights complaints, academic sanctions, or employer discipline, but not jail.

Summary Table

Feature	Hate Propaganda 🟥	“Vanilla” Antisemitism 🟨
Legal Status	Criminal offence (Criminal Code)	Human rights/civil violation
Requires Intent?	Yes — wilful	Often, but not always
Public Expression?	Must be public	Can be public or private
Targeted Group?	Must target an identifiable group	Usually does
Protected by Free Speech?	No — not protected under Charter	Sometimes — until it creates harm
Punishment	Fines, jail, criminal record	HR complaint, discipline, firing

Legal Standard: Hate Propaganda in Canadian Law

Under the Criminal Code of Canada, the following apply:

Section 318 —

Advocating Genocide

"Every person who advocates or promotes genocide is guilty of an indictable offence and liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years."

Section 319(2) —

Wilful Promotion of Hatred

"Everyone who, by communicating statements, other than in private conversation, wilfully promotes hatred against any identifiable group is guilty of an indictable offence

Key Elements:

- Target: Identifiable group (e.g., Jews)
- Statement must be: Public, wilful, and hate-promoting
- Defence exceptions (truth, good faith, religious texts) do not apply to violent rhetoric, blood libel, or glorification of terrorist acts

II. Key Distinction: Hate Propaganda vs. Antisemitic Speech

Element	Hate Propaganda 🟥	Antisemitism 🟨
Legal status	Criminal offence	Civil/Human rights violation
Intent requirement	Yes – must be wilful	Sometimes
Public expression	Yes – must be public	Can be private or public
Examples	Glorifying terrorism, Blood Libel, Dehumanisation, Genocide advocacy	Stereotypes, Holocaust minimisation Selective Israel demonization
Punishable by	Charges, arrest, prison	HR complaint, discipline, termination

III. Summary: Ramadan's Top 5 Posts Assessed Under Section 319(2)

Rank	Post Title	Summary	Criminal Code Violation	Comments
#1	Calling Jews "Satanists" and "Sub-human"	Video mocks Jewish intelligence, calls Jews satanic and biologically inferior.	✅ Clear violation of 319(2)	This is classic Nazi-style dehumanisation. Criminal.
#2	Glorification of the October 7 Hamas Massacre	On day of terrorist massacre, Ramadan publicly celebrates it.	✅ Criminal under Section 83.221 (Terrorism)	Incitement and glorification of terrorism.
#3	Jewish Bolsheviks Blamed for Holodomor Genocide	Claims Jews collectively engineered mass starvation in Ukraine.	✅ Clear violation of 319(2)	Blood libel. Collective group defamation.
#4	Blood Libel — Israel Murders Children in Humanitarian Zones	Asserts Israel bombed civilians in designated safe zones.	✅ Likely meets 319(2)	Echoes medieval accusations of Jewish ritual child murder.
#5	Holocaust Inversion — Gaza "Genocide" Accusation	Equates Israeli Jews with Nazis; claims genocide.	⚠ Borderline	Serious antisemitism; may not rise to criminality alone unless paired with incitement.

IV. Why Police Must Investigate and Charge

✅ These posts meet or exceed the legal threshold for

Section 319(2)

- Public: All posted on public social platforms (X, LinkedIn)
- Targeted: Directed at Jews, an identifiable group
- Wilful: Posted repeatedly, with ideological intent
- Hateful: Promote myths of child murder, collective guilt, and glorification of terrorist violence

Refusal to Investigate Based on "Lack of Threat" is Legally Incorrect

Section 319(2) does not require explicit threats or the phrase "I will harm…"

It is enough that the statements wilfully promote hatred in public toward Jews.

The officer's comment that "it's not hate unless he threatens someone" misunderstands the Criminal Code. Hate propaganda is about intentional incitement of hatred, not threats.

V. Institutional Context and Urgency

Wael Ramadan:

- He is a lecturer at the University of Guelph-Humber and Sheridan College. He has years of complaints against him for antisemitism, three human rights complaints at Guelph-Humber, students complaining to journalists at Sheridan, and complaints on Rate My Professor. Institutions, for reasons only known to themselves, protect Ramadan. He is friends with the top administrator at the University of Guelph-Humber, Melanie Spence Ariemma, and the Humber Human Rights department's employees are all subordinates to her.
- Has posted over 4,000 times since October 7, 2023
- Maintains a public profile that shapes young minds
- Faced no discipline while his Israel supporting colleague was suspended, gagged, and defamed for a single post defending Israel and for calling Hamas Nazis, he will likely be terminated.

This is not merely an academic disagreement — it is systematic, ideologically-driven hate dissemination by a university employee who retains access to vulnerable students.

VI. Next Steps: Recommended Action

1. Forward this report to:
    - RCMP National Division Hate Crimes Unit
    - Toronto Police Service, Hate Crime Unit
    - York Regional Police, Intelligence & Hate Crime
    - CIJA Legal Affairs
    - Friends of Simon Wiesenthal Centre
2. Request the following:
    - Formal investigation of the five posts listed above
    - Forensic social media review of all 4,000+ posts
    - Immediate consultation with Jewish advocacy groups regarding the safety of students

3. Criminal Charges under:
    - Section 319(2) — Wilful promotion of hatred
    - Section 83.221 — Terrorist propaganda (October 7, 2023 post)
    - Section 318 — Advocacy of genocide (if further evidence is found)

Key Points

- Research suggests Dr. Wael Ramadan's social media posts may violate Canada's hate propaganda laws, though legal outcomes depend on court interpretation.
- His posts, including dehumanizing language and glorification of terrorism, could meet thresholds for criminal charges under Sections 318, 319(2), and 83.221.
- Evidence indicates possible institutional bias, given contrasting treatment with another professor.
- Ontario precedents, such as Taylor and Grant, support the restriction of hate speech, though balancing with expression rights adds complexity.

Background

Dr. Wael Ramadan, a professor at the Pilon School of Business, University of Guelph-Humber and Sheridan College, has been accused of engaging in criminal hate propaganda through his social media. His posts, analyzed in the April 2025 report Formal Legal Summary: Hate Propaganda Assessment Wael Ramadan, allegedly violate Sections 318 (Advocating Genocide), 319(2) (Wilful Promotion of Hatred), and 83.221 (Terrorist Advocacy) of the Criminal Code of Canada. The report—intended for the RCMP and Jewish advocacy groups—ranks five posts by severity and calls for charges.

Legal Analysis

The Criminal Code protects identifiable groups from hate while preserving freedom of expression. Dr. Ramadan's posts include:

- Calling Jews "Satanists" and "sub-human" — likely violating Section 319(2).
- Glorifying the October 7 Hamas massacre — potentially breaching Section 83.221.
- Blaming "Jewish Bolsheviks" for the Holodomor — likely violating Section 319(2).
- Reviving blood libel myths — another likely violation of Section 319(2).
- Comparing Israel's actions to the Holocaust — a borderline but serious antisemitic example.

Precedents and Context

Ontario case law, such as Canada (Human Rights Commission) v. Taylor (1990 SCC 26), upheld restrictions on hate speech like Taylor's anti-Semitic telephone messages. R. v. Grant (2025 ONCJ 231) treated hate motivation as an aggravating factor in sentencing. The attached report also highlights a disparity: Dr. Ramadan remains undisciplined after over 4,000 antisemitic posts since October 2023, while Paul Finlayson was suspended for supporting Israel. This suggests a double standard that demands legal review.

Conclusion

Given the severity and public nature of Dr. Ramadan's posts, coupled with his influence as a professor, charges under Sections 319(2) and 83.221 appear warranted. However, legal outcomes hinge on judicial interpretation. The RCMP should conduct a full review to uphold Canada's hate propaganda laws.

Report: Legal Assessment of Hate Propaganda by Dr. Wael Ramadan for RCMP Hate Crimes Division

Introduction

This report, for submission to the RCMP Hate Crimes Division, evaluates whether Dr. Ramadan's posts meet the criteria for criminal hate propaganda. It expands on the April 2025 document, Formal Legal Summary: Hate Propaganda Assessment Wael Ramadan and uses relevant case law to recommend charges.

Legal Framework

The Criminal Code addresses hate propaganda while balancing expression under Section 2(b) of the Charter. Relevant sections:

- Section 318: Advocating genocide against an identifiable group.
- Section 319(2): Wilfully promoting hatred against an identifiable group in public (requires AG consent).
- Section 83.221: Advocating or promoting terrorism (also requires AG consent).

These sections are designed to prevent emotional, reputational, and societal harm, as noted in R. v. Keegstra.

Relevant Precedents

Case	Citation	Details	Relevance
Canada (HRC) v. Taylor	[1990] 3 S.C.R. 892	Upheld restriction on anti-Semitic phone messages	Shows hate speech may be restricted even without direct incitement
R. v. Keegstra	[1990] 3 S.C.R. 697	Teacher promoted antisemitism to students	Directly applicable to professors like Ramadan
R. v. Andrews	[1990] 3 S.C.R. 870	Hate speech in publication	Parallels Ramadan's use of public platforms
R. v. Grant	2025 ONCJ 231	Hate-motivated threats against Muslim women	Highlights hate motivation as an aggravating factor

Analysis of Dr. Ramadan's Posts

Description	Legal Violation	Assessment
Calling Jews "Satanists" and "sub-human"	Section 319(2)	Dehumanizing language encourages hate, mirroring Taylor and Keegstra
Glorifying October 7 Hamas massacre	Section 83.221	Incitement and glorification of terrorism; direct criminal breach
"Jewish Bolsheviks" blamed for Holodomor	Section 319(2)	Spreads antisemitic historical falsehoods
Blood libel: "Israel murders children"	Section 319(2)	Recycles medieval antisemitic tropes; incites hate
Holocaust inversion: "Gaza = genocide"	Possibly Section 319(2)	Serious antisemitism; borderline criminality depending on context

Each post is public and targets Jews, an identifiable group. Ramadan's position as professor compounds the severity.

Institutional Bias

The contrast between Ramadan's impunity and Finlayson's punishment for pro-Israel speech raises credible concerns of institutional antisemitism and administrative shielding. Figures such as VP Melanie Spence-Ariemma are noted in the report as potentially implicated in enabling this disparity. This context strengthens the need for RCMP intervention.

Recommendations

- Investigate: Forensic review of Dr. Ramadan's 4,000+ posts.
- Lay Charges: Pursue charges under Sections 319(2) and 83.221 (with AG consent).
- Coordinate: Work with Jewish advocacy groups to address wider systemic issues.
