

P-A-S framework (english course)

SL: Looking to learn English faster?

Ever felt pressured by friends who speak better than you? Tried different approaches with no success? Fortunately, you've found me, and I'll help you turn the situation around.

While vocabulary and grammar are important, they're not enough. Imagine having books in front of you but still struggling to make progress. You need motivation.

Through extensive research, I've found that guidance is the key to English learning. With proper guidance, you can make significant progress in just six months of practice, compared to potentially years on your own. Now that you know what you lack, I'll show you everything you need to expedite your progress.
