Students will answer the questions one by one and click the next arrow. If they do not answer all parts of the question. This message will pop up.

Problem

You have not answered one or more parts of a question. Click the [Yes] button to go to the next question or the [No] button to stay on this page. [MessageCode: 11743]

Students will want to show their work on paper so that they get in the habit of working problems out and you as the teacher can see what misconceptions they have. There will also be no easy way for you to get the data from the online test.

Simple way to section off their work.
