

Situation:

Bus ride from A to B in London

Aims:

practice of common phrasal verbs related to the use of public transport

descriptive use of past simple use of time transitions, for example, "then" and "after that"

Possible language to use:

give change (money)

help (somebody) up (from their seat)

stand up

sit down

get on

get off

stand in line

drive off

fall asleep

get into a fight (WITH someone)

at the next stop

stare at (someone)

take sth out (of your bag/pocket)

give up a seat (to an elderly person)

Instructions:

Use the pictures below to create a story about an eventful bus journey you had in London, England

Give as many details as you can - be imaginative and descriptive

Use as much of the language in the previous section as you can

You can use the first or third person

Add other pictures and details if you would like to Add opinions about some of the situations in the pictures which took place

Pictures:

1

2

3

4

5

6

Language practice:

1. What's going ____?
2. Are you getting _____ at the next stop?
3. I've never seen a driver fight _____ a passenger before
4. There were twenty people in the queue so it took me at least three minutes to get _____ the bus when it stopped
5. Honestly, I always _____ up my seat to an elderly person

Story (Steve to type as you speak):