

Continent: Black Square

Summary

Welcome to our country! And we are in the center of our world!

A long time ago in our country lived only bad people, because it was a prison. All were here - criminals, swindlers, thieves.

But nowadays we are trying to change it. We have created a magical power and structure. It can absorb the negative energy of people, buildings, trees, plants, and even of the air, and transforms this energy into helpful and useful things.

People of our country became good, step by step, but not talented. And we created secret services of spies.

Spies kidnap artists, dancers, scientists, singers, and other talented people from other countries and bring them to our country. It's not legal, but it works.

In the beginning, kidnapped people didn't like it. But over time they get used to it and they like it.

Because we have wonderful places, like the famous "A lot of people - Malevich" bar, Black mountains and so on, good social packages, innovative technology like transforming the energy. And of course, our government pay a lot of money for kidnapped people.

Today we are a small country with a bad past, but light future. Because we are trying to change our nature, weather, and people every day.

Geography

And here we are again.

I want to tell you about our geographical features. Our Black square continent is an inverted cone with various natures. In the centre, there is a not-so-deep Red cavity. Around the cavity, there are huge green square Malevich's plains with different plants and animals. There are high mountains on the border.

So, people in our continent have never seen the sea. There are only high mountain rivers and some lakes. Rivers flow to the cavity and form some small waterfalls. But water from rivers evaporates after going to the bottom of the cavity. Above the red cavity, there is a viewpoint for tourists.

Climate

What about the weather?

There is one climate zone on our continent - the sharply continental climate. High mountains protect our continent from air masses from the seas abroad.

There are 4 seasons with typical weather. Summer is always sunny and warm in our continent, temperature reaches 20-25 degrees.

Autumn is also rainy and windy, but without thunder and flashlights, because people in our continent don't like it. And our magical black square power absorbs thunder and flashlights and transforms them into electricity.

Winter is usually frosty and snowy. The temperature reaches minus 10-15 degrees.

At the beginning of the spring, it is also chilly, not as frosty as winter and our citizens celebrate National Avalanche Day. But spring becomes warm and green at the end when the snow melts. Usually, in the spring warm wind blows.

There is dry, frosty, and cloudy weather in the high mountains on the board. There is humid and warm weather around the waterfalls. Around the cavity, there is sweltering and stuffy weather.

Animals

Symbol of our continent is a Black Ordinaryc. Why is this beast a symbol of our world? A long time ago our continent was attacked by mosquitoes. And our magical power created a new animal with wide wings, a strong beak and a long tongue. This animal helped us exterminate mosquitoes and keep their population under control. Nowadays they live in the western part of our continent, in the dense forest like masters of the situation. They look like a big black owl with small frog legs, black, of course. The entire body of the Froggyowl is covered with beautiful, shiny black feathers. There is no fur on his body at all. Our singers write a lot of songs about Froggyowl.

Mythical creature

Deep and deep in our Black cavity lives the real Devil with paws. A long time ago when bad people lived on our continent they fell into hell at the bottom of our cavity after death. There was chaos and anarchy in this place without a leader. And then he appeared. He has got three paws with claws, strong horns, dark skin, and a long tongue. He instilled fear in the inhabitants of the dungeon. Besides, he had strong magical powers. He could turn your soul to stone. As soon as he arrived, things got quieter.

But over time, bad people disappeared from the continent, there were less and less of them in hell. Fear and horror of the Devil with paws began to subside. Nowadays he is bored at the bottom of the cavity. Sometimes he comes to the surface to play pranks. He licks people and tickles them with his horns. It's not so scary, but annoying. He's also a great kisser.

Architecture

Most of our continent is covered by high mountains, waterfalls, and coniferous forests. It's impossible to build many tall skyscrapers, large apartments, and high-rise buildings in this complex landscape.

Besides, most of the population in our continent is artists, dancers, singers, and other rich bohemian intelligence. That's why the most common buildings here are villas.

Despite the fact that we don't have inland seas, villas are built on high snowy peaks near ski resorts, near Black Cavity with beautiful views of waterfalls and deep in forests.

Usually, villas have three floors, pretty carved wooden doors, tall panoramic windows, and a small garage for cars. In the attic they usually place a room for creativity, drawing, making, repetitions and hobbies. The villas feature a large skylight for stargazing for inspiration. In front of the villas, there is a platform for a small flower garden. Richer people have a swimming pool and helipad there.

More poor people live in small bungalows, hovels, and multistory buildings. Bungalows and hovels are located around waterfalls, where the climate is warmer and calmer, as well as the humid and pleasant breeze from the falls. There is also a little behind the mountains, on the coasts of the outer seas.

Roofs of bungalows and hovels are made of coniferous trees, because palm trees don't grow there. There are one or two bedrooms, a combined bathroom, and a small kitchen. People, who live in bungalows and hovels, always try to make a garden or kailyard and grow some plants, fruits, and vegetables.

Some young ordinary people, students, young couples, and families prefer to live in multistory buildings. They are concentrated in the cities at the foot of the high mountains. These are not typical apartment buildings. These are beautiful, bright, and tall houses with spacious flats. Small glass balconies reflect the sun and the snow of the high mountains. Therefore, it seems that the houses are always shining. Besides this solar energy is converted into energy for heating with the help of our magic power. Melt water from mountains is used for the water supply for houses.

Flats in these houses consist of two rooms: bedrooms and restrooms, and a big bathroom. But on each floor, there is a huge dining room where families gather and dine every evening.

Every morning he opens his house in the mountains and accepts anyone who needs help. He doesn't charge for his services. only love from pretty women. Blondyman has a lot of fans and lovers, of course.

Also, he is always opposed to Shaggy Boy. He is trying to find and stop him. Now Shaggy is holding the last stupid girl of our continent captive to torture and force her to be talented on her own. But Blondy man will stop him and save the girl!

Daily Routines

House: Baba Yaga's bungalow

Our BlondyMan is the grand-nephew of Russian Baba Yaga. He is her last relative. That's why she bequeathed him her bungalow in the deep woods of our continent with all comforts. But to get there you would have to drive for three days in a car. Blondy lives here nowadays.

The bungalow has only one floor without sweeping staircases. Only small stairs in the attic. There are two rooms: bedroom and living room, bathroom and kitchen. There are a lot of windows because our hero likes a lot of light. BlondyMan loves to make preserves and pickles. He keeps them in the cellar. In the attic, he keeps a lot of Baba Yaga's domains like magical plants, herbs, and so on. In case you can turn to the hero for a potion. Sometimes it helps them to fight evil.

The roof of the bungalow is made from coniferous trees because palm trees don't grow on our continent.

In fact, Baba Yaga's bungalow is built entirely of wood. But the population of our continent thinks that it is made from magic and witchcraft.

There is a small garden in front of the bungalow. BlondyMan is growing some vegetables, and fruits here. The garden also has a bathhouse in a huge barrel.

Villain: Shaggy Boy

Family

Shaggy Boy was born in the Capital of our Black Continent, in the middle of the night. His parents were young and beautiful.

Shaggy's mom was a criminal, she stole art from state galleries. She was caught and spent the rest of her life in prison when she died a long time ago.

His father is a normal, ordinary man with a normal job. He loved Shaggy's mom so much that he paid no attention to her crimes. After her death, his heart was broken.

Our villain received all the good qualities from his father. But the worst was received from the mother, of course.

Nowadays Shaggy's father met a good woman. She is pregnant and soon Shaggy Boy will have a brother. Maybe, in the future, our villain will have a sister-in-law.

Besides Shaggy Boy has a sister from his biological mom and dad. And she makes him not such a bad villain.

Firstly, he is a great brother, who takes care of his sister. He loves her and always helps.

Secondly, Shaggy is a kind uncle. He loves and pampers her three nephews. He always spends their free time with them.

Finally, he respects his sister's husband, his brother-in-law. At the meeting, he shakes his hand and chats about everything in the world.

From his father's side, Shaggy has a distant relative from the Yellow Revolution continent. She is his great-aunt Kitty. That's why our villain is so shaggy.

Appearance and character

Shaggy Boy looks like an extravagant young boy with thin pink lips. He has deep blue eyes, light skin, thick brown eyebrows, and shaggy dark hair, for which he got his nickname. He is so charismatic that some women find him attractive.

Shaggy is not such a bad person. He is wise and fair, but direct and tough, and sometimes he is very aggressive and cruel. He thinks that our government conducts the wrong policy. Shaggy boy believes that we should develop ourselves, without creative people from another continent. We need more cruel punishments for boring and stupid people, we must impose art on everyone.

Daily Routines

House: Shaggy's hovel

Always in all fairytales, movies, and serials evil is cooler than goodness. But our villain is different.

Shaggy Boy lives in a very small hovel behind mountains on the coast. There is a very small bedroom, a tiny kitchen, and a small shower. Shaggy's bedroom is always in clutter, because he made his evil plans there.

This hovel was built from oak boards. The roof of the hovel consists of old hay, and in some places is leaking. It is curly and so shaggy like our villain.

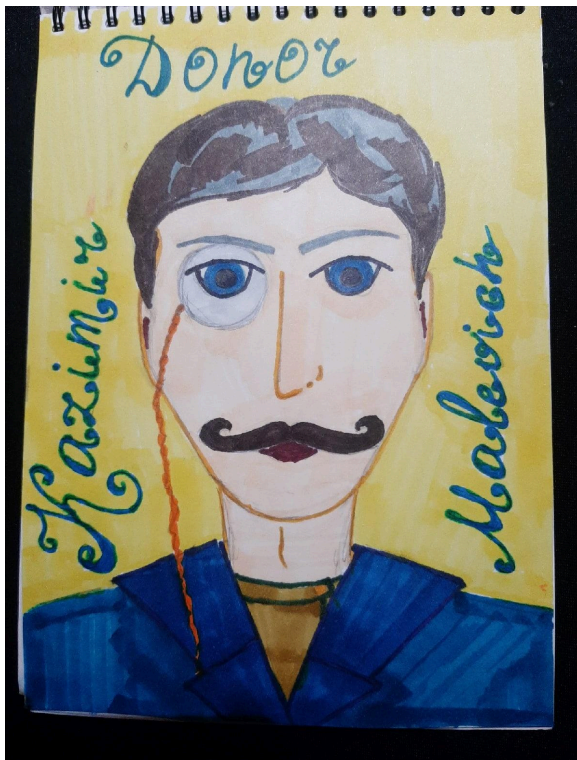

There are only two windows in this hovel and one old gray door. But it has a beautiful view of the sea. Sometimes it sways in the strong sea breeze.

Hovel has no conveniences like central heating and water supply. Poor people, who live there, learned to heat their homes with large fires and get fresh water from melted snow at the foot of the mountains.

It's a small, poor, and not comfortable dwelling. But Shaggy likes it because it reflects his cunning mind and evil soul.

Style

Donor: Kasimir Malevich.

Kasimir was born in the north of the Crossroad Continent. He spent most of his childhood on the road. His parents were popular and rich artists, who traveled around the Square world. He was a nice, sweet and talented child. In his childhood, he spent a lot of time at the easel. His dad taught him to paint in watercolour and his mother in oils. At thirteen he drew his first painting about life on the road. He loved his parents so much, he dreamed of becoming a great artist like his parents. But Kasimir didn't like their lifestyle. At eighteen he ran away from them and the roads. He wanted to find his place in the world. He began to change continents and a place of residence every year.

And roughly thirty years old he decided to stay and take a root in the Black Square world. Here he painted his most famous art - Black Square.

He was the first and only artist on the continent at that time. And that made him special. He is curt, very sensitive, and quarrelsome. He opened schools of fine arts and began to teach our citizens and children. Apart from this, he opened a bar named after himself. Only talented people are allowed to this bar.

Now he has lived there for almost eighty years. Nowadays he constantly grumbles but helps the hero to save people from Shaggy Boy. They both try to help people and teach them new things.

Daily Routines

House Malevich's villa

Kasimir is a rich, famous, and confident person. And his villa completely conveys this. He lives in the high mountains.

It is a big beautiful building with panoramic windows, wooden doors, and a tile black roof. It is very restrained and austere: clear gray walls, twisted stairs, railings, and stone balconies.

Villa consists of 3 floors. There is a spacious kitchen, dining room, gallery, and living room on the first floor, five bedrooms, three bathrooms with Jacuzzi, and a huge dressing room on the second floor, and on the third floor, there are rooms for creativity: workshops, drawing rooms, and others.

The attic houses rooms for inspiration: a telescope for stargazing, a small movie theater on the wall, a music and song room, and a huge window for watching beautiful views.

Kasimir likes flowers and trees, that's why he has a big garden and orangery in his villa. He grows a lot of types of roses, peonies, and tulips. He organizes tours of his garden in the summer.

Behind the villa is a large swimming pool, in which you can swim even in winter. Next to the villa is a garage, where Malevich stores his bikes and cars.

Victim: Naive Masha.

Young beautiful girl with big blue eyes, plump lips, a good body, and big tits. Masha was born in a small village around the waterfalls. Her parents are great opera singers. But Masha didn't inherit their excellent hearing, only pleasant voice. When she was a child she didn't like to study. All subjects were given to her with difficulty.

Nowadays she is the last stupid girl on our continent.

She likes taking photos for her social media, talking with girls, and flirting with boys. She doesn't like working, reading, thinking, and so on. She works as a model for several magazines, and in the evenings she poses for artists from the Malevich school.

But she is pure, innocent, enquiring, and sociable. She believes in everyone in this world. She is selfless in her actions and deeds.

She never fell in love and had a boyfriend.

That's why she succumbed to the Shaggy Boy. Now she is in his captivity. She fell under his spell. He convinced her that with his help she could become smart and talented on her own.

But everything turned out quite the opposite!

Masha so influenced the Shaggy Boy with her innocence and purity that he refused his idea to correct her. Shaggy fell in love with Masha and now he is trying to change himself.

Devil's love

It happened ten years ago. Our Devil was bored and he wanted to travel around the world. He became the capital of the Udea continent. He wanted to have fun with people and scare them. The Devil walked on the street and unexpectedly frightened them. And then he saw Brienna in the middle of the square. He tried to scare her, but she didn't. It was unusual for a Devil! He liked this woman and he tried to find her. But he couldn't.

He came to a Donor and asked him for help. Donor helped our Devil and Devil find Brienna in a high mountain village.

She was surprised. Brienna liked her loneliness and she didn't need a man! She suggested Devil being with her and being a volunteer here.

And Devil agreed because he never ditched someone. They lived a block away apart in a village in the Udea continent. He spent a few times with Brienna and helped people. And he became better than he was (a little). As Devil spent a couple of months doing the most good, he looked like exactly the same ordinary person.

Now that he spent time with Brienna, he understood that he didn't love her. He was only interested in her as a kind and wise person. After all, they became friends.

Art in the deep wood

The sunshine was brightening, birds were singing, waves thundering were crushing the rock and Masha was going to work when it happened, when Shaggy kidnapped her.

Masha was walking to the bus stop to the loud car horns when a charming, shaggy-haired guy approached her. He introduced himself:

- Hey, girl! I'm Shaggierfield Landyluck, but my friends call me Shaggy Boy. I saw and thought that you were an angel, who had fallen from heaven. What is your name?

Masha thought: "What a strange name", but said:

- Thank you, I'm Masha.
- And what did you do here?
- I'm waiting for a bus to my work, - asked Masha.
- Really? What a coincidence, I have a cool and comfortable bike that I can take you anywhere. Do you want me to take you?
- It's not dangerous? I'm not sure
- Absolutely not. I drive it every day. It's going to be fun, let's go.

Masha was so naive and gullible. She decided to agree and went with Shaggy to work. But who knew how this acquaintance would turn out. After five minutes of conversation, Masha felt weak, her eyes began to close, and she fell asleep. It was a cunning plan from Shaggy Boy! He had a special technique of hypnosis, which put the naive Masha to sleep. He loaded her onto his motorbike and drove her to the edge of the forest.

Masha woke up with a pain in her head and was frightened by the eerie surroundings. There were no windows and lights in the place. It was very dark and cold, and it smelled damp and something chemical. And then Masha screamed.

At the same time in the same forest, Blondy Man, a local hero, was chopping wood in the woods. It was a typical day for him. But then he heard a strange sound somewhere far away in the forest. Listening for a little, he realised that it was a woman's scream. And Blondie ran towards the sound. He ran for a long time, but soon the sound stopped. In vain he tried to find the source and the victim deep in the forest, all was in vain. After wandering through the woods for a long time, he gave up and decided to seek help from his old assistant, the painter Kosemir Malevich.

Kosemir was drinking his fifth cup of coffee when Blondie Man appeared on his doorstep. The hero was excited and agitated. Kosemir tried in vain to cheer him up:

- What happened, Blondy? Something wrong?

- Yes, Kosemir! I heard a woman's scream in the forest! I think that someone is in trouble. I tried to find her, but I couldn't. I need your help! I know you're a great inventor, and you can figure out what to do for me.

Kosemir thought about it.

- So, I know what to do. But you have to go through some tests. First, you must bring me snow from the very top of the mountain. We will use it to make water for the paints. Second, at midnight under the light of the bright moon, you must find a shiny tree with a golden crown. Cut it down. From the wood, we will make a canvas. Third, catch the whitest hare near the cavity. From him, we will make a brush.

- And how does that help us?

Kosemir answered:

- We will paint a magic picture. It will show the way to the mysterious girl.

Our hero decided to combine all the trials in one. At midnight he went into the woods. A huge pine tree with a golden crown shone under the moonlight at the edge of the forest. For a long time, Blondy tried to cut it down with only his axe, but it still wouldn't give way. Something was wrong!

Our hero scratched his head and began to think. And the tree kept shining and shining in the moonlight. He decided to wait until the moon went behind the clouds and the tree's glow faded.

That helped! Just a couple of strokes of the axe without the moon and the pine came down. Our hero carved a huge canvas of it to his full height and set off for the mountains.

For a long time, he climbed to the top, but a strong wind kept him from climbing. "What shall I do?" - thought our hero. Then he put the canvas in front of him and went forward with confidence. The wind was no longer a problem for him. After that, he went to the Black Cavity. For a long time, Blondy was looking for a white hare. The beast appeared almost at dawn.

"How to catch him?" - thought the hero. He found a big carrot and made a trap. He put it under the canvas and put the canvas on a large stick. And when the rabbit came up for the carrot, he knocked down the stick and the canvas covered the hare.

Having collected all the components, our hero went to Malevich. Kosemir melted the snow, pulled a tuft of wool from the hare's back, and made the brush. After that, our friends began to draw a magic picture. Gradually, step by step, a map with the girl's location began to appear in the picture. And our hero went for her immediately!

While our hero was trying to help, Masha in the hut was subjected to experiments by Shaggy. He tried in a very short time to instill in her a sense of beauty. He wanted Masha to become a great creator through hypnosis and forcibly instilling creativity in her. He made her draw naked, sing in the cold, sculpt from clay blindfolded, and much more. He thought that through stress, the body would quickly develop a new habit. But nothing helped...

Blondy Man looked for the hut for most of the day. Finally, at the edge of the forest, an old rickety house appeared. A strange shaggy guy with an earring in his ear came out to meet him.

- Who are you? What do you want? - he asked.

- I'm Blondy Man. I'm here to save the girl, who screamed from this house. Do you know something about it?
- Yes! I'm Shaggy Boy and I kidnapped this girl for my experiences. Get out of here before I kill you!
- No, I'll save this girl and you can't stop me! - yelled the Blondy Man.

And the fight between guys had begun. At first, they fought with maces, then they switched to swords, and ended up fighting with fists. While they were fighting, Masha got rid of the hypnosis, got dressed, and found a way out of the hut. She distracted Shaggy Boy's attention with loud off-key singing. Blondie Man knocked him out, grabbed Masha, put him in a mortar and they rushed out of the forest.

After a few hours of flight in a mortar, Masha and Blondy Man saw the chase! Shaggy raced after them on a motorcycle. And he almost caught up with them. The heroes did not know what to do and how to break away, they had almost left the forest, where Shaggy's hypnotic power doesn't work. But then, out of nowhere, Malevich appeared from behind a pine tree! With a magic hare brush, he drew huge snares into which Shaggy's motorcycle fell. The heroes calmly left the forest, and Shaggy Boy was left behind.

Masha was able to return to a normal life, but she began to get involved in music, dancing, and a little drawing.

Blondy Man nevertheless returned for Shaggy, tied him up, and put him in prison until he was completely corrected.

And Kasimir still paints pictures that are magical, not only because of their magic features but because of their beauty, for all the galleries of the Black Square Continent.

Illogical Story: The deep Nightingale ate badly and instantly on the nonsense Wedding's theory of the spot's hole.

The Nightingale hatched from the green rock at 9 am in the deep dark night. Jumping out of his huge shoes, he immediately began to read the ads. Here was the problem - locally sold venison to a limited extent. He was so excited! He began to poise on only one beak.

Clothes was put on him and went to look for the seller. Having approached the lake, he asked a fish:

- Don't you know where to buy venison?

The fish were silent as fish.

- Oh, what nonsense! Can't you help me? I'll ask the deer!

He sat on a deer:

- Dear deer, where is the venison seller?

The deer was outraged:

- What kind of questions? He is in the market where they give cigarettes in the morning.

The Nightingale flew to the market and saw a presentation buffet. He popped out of the crowd and started to eat. But here he saw a man in a long beautiful white costume with one little hole. He was Doctor Wedding. It was his presentation buffet. The buffet was bad, but the Doctor was great.

He created a not new theory with some holes in it. Dr. Wedding considered that if you have a spot on your clothes you need to make a hole in it. Doctor decided to tell everybody about it but not for everybody.

Wedding climbed onto the tortoise shell and began to pierce all the suits with his finger. Single holes suddenly began to appear on the suits. It was bewitchingly. Cheers fell down, tables fell up. All the birds were satisfied with the bad buffet.

The nightingale flew away just as he came on a camel. His deep stomach was completely empty, but still not empty. He took his hat to take his leave and went home to the sea.

In general, it was a good, not-so-bad day.
