Verse 1 (Em, C, G, D)

All the colors in the valley touch the Shenandoah sky

An exhibition in a gallery that is massive and divine

We are tall and we are rooted like the appalachian trees

But like the river we are powered by the pull of mighty seas

Pre-chorus (C D)

The waves are being lifted and the sand is being sifted

For a treasure that is waiting to be found

Chorus (Em, C, G, D)

If dreams are somewhere in the distance

Love is somewhere within reach

Someday we'll be the lesson that somebody else will teach

If there's someone on the mountain top

Somehow we'll make the climb

If there's something in the water

Then I'm somewhere in the tide

Verse 2 (Em, C, G, D)

All the footprints in the shore line are a story to be heard
Every grain and every gravel could account for every word
In a land that is for lovers there is room for every kind
Every voice, every heart, every soul and every mind

Pre-chorus (C-D)

The waves are being lifted and the sand is being sifted
For a treasure that is waiting to be found

Chorus (Em, C, G, D)

Bridge (C-D)

What is happening? Can you feel the gravity?
A rising tide is lifting all the boats

Chorus (Em, C, G, D)
