The highs and lows of tourism October 9, 2019 Maine
Kennebec Journal & Morning Sentinel
... The number of hunters and anglers visiting Maine is significantly reduced, especially in the North Woods, where our deer herd has disappeared... Claybrook Mountain Lodge east of Kingfield as an example. When Greg and Pat Drummond opened their lodge, deer hunting was their most profitable business. Today it is their least profitable and they haven't shot a deer in seven years..,

These articles have been reviewed for relevance and content. Some links to the original article may no longer be active.