Mayor Hogan noted Police Chief Crowe has announced his retirement, effective March 31, 2007. Steuben County Civil Service will be notified, if a police chief's exam is required; the City Charter may allow a chief to be appointed instead. An interim chief may be needed if a new one is not in place at the time of retirement.

- Fire Chief Kelly reported the new ambulance seems to be running well. He said he wants to exercise the option under the ambulance bid to purchase another vehicle in 2007.

Police Chief Crowe said that pursuant to the August meeting of the Board of Public Safety, he investigated the 15-minute parking situation on Canisteo Street, in front of the old Connors Pharmacy. It seems those signs were never ordinances, so they can be removed without an amendment. Mayor Hogan instructed the chief to work with the DPW to have the signs taken down.

By Huffsmith/Sengstock:

RESOLVED, that this meeting adjourn 9:14 a.m.

Robert J. Roberts
