

dolphin hospital is a nomadic experimental music project employing hauntological aesthetic and obsolete equipment as well as a researcher's approach, being a professional history scholar, in collecting samples from found media from vast own archives and materials obtained by occasional encounters creating soundscapes somewhere between ritual dark ambient and post-vaporwave / glitch. started about 5 years ago by the creator of Nazlo Records, it had a numerous shows in many countries as well as online concerts and some music videos also made using obsolete / circuit-bent equipment. based in Paris now and available / looking forward to any trip offer couple more releases examples - one and another one online streaming shows - one and two music videos shot on 8mm film and using circuit-bent equipment

tech-rider :

2 x mono jacks for the output from my mixer

30 min soundcheck / setup