

Quiz: Bordeaux, Burgundy, Rhone

Which one is a wine from Beaujolais?

- a. Beaune
- b. Meurey
- c. Brouilly
- d. Cahors

Which of the following statements is true?

- a. Wines from Macon can be either red or white.
- b. The white wines of Meursault are typically unoaked
- c. Grand cru vineyards in Burgundy are usually located at the bottom of the slopes
- d. Whole bunches are never used in red winemaking in Burgundy

Which of the following grape varieties is not permitted for Alsace Grand Cru?

- a. Gewurztraminer
- b. Pinot Blanc
- c. Muscat
- d. Riesling

Within the context of Bordeaux what is unique about the classification system in St. Emillion?

- a. It applies to the vineyard and not the chateau
- b. It forms part of the appellation law
- c. Unlike the Medoc it does not permit promotion and demotion
- d. There is a different ranking for red and white wine

Which one is a dry red wine?

- a. Barsac
- b. Madiran
- c. Sauvannieres
- d. Puligny-Montrachet

Which one of the following is correctly matched?

- a. Condrieu and Marsanne
- b. Hermitage and Grenache
- c. Saint-Joseph and Syrah
- d. Cote Rotie and Cinsault

Which winemaking technique is used to produce a red wine with low levels of tannin and flavours of cinnamon and kirsch?

- a. Rack and return
- b. Carbonic maceration
- c. The use of rotary fermenters
- d. Autovinification