

2LT Harry R. Zuehlke

Location - West-A: R23, C27

ZUEHLKE

Second Lt. Harry R. Zuehlke, 705 Jackson drive, entered service as an enlisted man Oct. 31, 1941, and received a battlefield commission as second lieutenant April 8, 1945, in the European theater, where he was a member of the Fifth division of the Third army. His decorations include the ETO ribbon with five battle stars, good conduct medal, American defense service medal, expert combat infantryman's badge, the combat infantryman's badge, and six overseas stripes.