Eleventh Doctor- And here we are Victorian Engl.....

Eleventh Doctor- UH.....

Eleventh Doctor- This is not good (the doctor sees a Tardis in the distance)

Eleventh Doctor- Not good at all

Eleventh Doctor- How am I seeing a Tardis right now and wait.....

Eleventh Doctor- Oh no!

Eleventh Doctor- That is the entrance to the Cybermen's tomb and that is...

Eleventh Doctor- wow I was small back.....

Then the Doctor faintly hears the Second Doctor speaking in the distance

Second Doctor- It's perfectly safe now

PARRY-You'll be killed!

HAYDON: No, don't touch him!

(The Doctor grabs a handle and pulls but can't move it.)

Second Doctor- I'm afraid it's beyond my strength.

Jamie- Let me, Doctor.

Second Doctor- Jamie.

(Jamie can't move them either.)

Jamie- Aye, well, I've not had much exercise lately.

Second Doctor- Quite. I think here is a gentleman who can open these doors for us.

Eleventh Doctor- I can't let them see me and especially him

Eleventh Doctor- Wait

Eleventh Doctor- Why does it sound like three Tardises are landing

Eleventh Doctor- This is not good

Kaftan- He is my servant. I will not have him risk his life.

Parry- Surely it was for just such a contingency as this that you insisted we bring him with us?

Second Doctor- Oh, there's no danger now. Unless of course he's afraid.

(Toberman steps forward.)

Second Doctor- Oh, no, no, he's not afraid.

(Toberman pulls open the right door then the left. They are about a foot thick.)

Parry- Come on.

Second Doctor- No, wait, wait. I would be very careful in there if I were you.

(This is all being said in the distance and is not the main focus and is happening at the same time as what is happening with the Eleventh Doctor)

Then Amy and Rory step out of the Tardis

Amy- Are you talking to yourself again

Eleventh Doctor- No

Amy- Then what did I hear?

Amy- A ghost?

Rory- So it is not just me hearing things

Eleventh Doctor- Quiet

Eleventh Doctor- I need to think

Eleventh Doctor- Think

Eleventh Doctor- Think

Eleventh Doctor- Think

Amy- Could you please tell us what is going on?

Eleventh Doctor- Uh.....

Eleventh Doctor- Well it seems somehow I have been brought back to a point in history but not just any point in history a point in my history

Rory- How is that even possible?

Amy- Ya how can that happen?

Eleventh Doctor- I don't know but we must leave now so get in the Tardis right now

Then the Eleventh Doctor, Amy, and Rory hear the sound of another Tardis landing

Rory- Uh

Rory- Did I just hear the sound of another Tardis landing

Eleventh Doctor- Quiet!

Eleventh Doctor- I need to think again and quick

While speeding into the Tardis The Doctor said

Eleventh Doctor- Get in we are leaving now

Amy and Rory are running into the Tardis as well when they hear someone behind them say

Fourth Doctor- Excuse me but I was wondering if you could tell me what yea.....

The Fourth Doctor without seeing the Eleventh Doctor yet says to Amy and Rory

Fourth Doctor- How the hell did you get a Tardis that i.....

Eleventh Doctor yells

Eleventh Doctor- GET IN!

Eleventh Doctor- WE ARE LEVIN.....

Eleventh Doctor- No

Fourth Doctor- It can't be

Fourth Doctor- like it can't be that skinny

Eleventh Doctor- At least it is not big boffy hair

Fourth Doctor- Well at least I have a cool scarf and not a silly bow ti.....

Then Amy Yells at both Doctors and asks

Amy- It would be nice to know what in the bloody hell is going on here

Fourth Doctor- Well you see it seems someone or thing is pulling me from multiple points in my life and placing me to this point in my history

Then in the distance they here a female voice

Romana II- Doctor where did you go

Fourth Doctor- Over here Romana

Romana II- Oh there you are

Eleventh Doctor- Everybody get inside so no one sees us or I should say so no one else sees us

Then they all step into the Eleventh Doctor's Tardis

Romana II- Doctor why are we in another tardis

Fourth Doctor- Well you see it seems someone or thing is pullin.....

Abruptly the Eleventh Doctor cuts off the Fourth Doctor and says to Romana II

Eleventh Doctor- He is me and I am him and we have been brought to this point in are history and we don't know why

Romana II- So how can I help solve this

Eleventh Doctor- I don't know yet

Fourth Doctor- Where were you heading before you got brought here?

Eleventh Doctor- We were headed to Victorian London but why does that matter

Fourth Doctor- It matters because we were heading to Paris France

Eleventh Doctor- So do you think because we were both going to a place in Europe we may have crossed paths

Fourth Doctor- Yes but it must have been for only a few seconds at most

Romana II- And in that time whatever it is may have been able to change your course to here

Then Rory walks over to the Doctors and Romana 2 and says

Rory- I don't mean to interrupt your conversation but what is the plan to get us out of this?

Fourth Doctor- We don't have a plan yet

Eleventh Doctor- But we may know how this happened

Rory- Well did you ever think of how keep the Tardis from being spotted by the people down near that door

Eleventh Doctor I didn't think of that but let me check to see if they have seen us

The Eleventh Doctor pops his head out the door and see the Second Doctor's companion Jamie looking right at them

Then it goes to the perspective of The Second Doctor, Jamie, and Victoria

Jamie- What is that up there

Second Doctor- I don't Kno.....

Second Doctor- Oh no

Jamie- Oh no what

Second Doctor- That is a Tardis

Jamie- And what's wrong with that

Second Doctor- Think

Jamie- Oh

Jamie- We are suppose to be the only Tardis

Second Doctor- Yes and it is much worse than just that

Victoria- Can you please fill me in on what is happening right now

Second Doctor- There is another tardis up on the hill

Victoria- and I assume from how you are acting that is a bad thing

Second Doctor- Yes it is a very bad thing because it may be my people are here or worse

Jamie- What could be worse?

Second Doctor- No time for that now

Jamie- Why

Second Doctor- Because I think they have spotted us

Then it cuts back to the Eleventh Doctor

Amy- Then what should we do now

Rory- I say we just go down and talk to them

Fourth Doctor- And why would we do that

Rory- Because they may be able to help figure out what is going on here and they may have an idea of who is responsible

Amy- I agree with Rory because I don't see either of you doing anything to fix this

Eleventh Doctor- this is something that is never supposed to happen to any time lord

Eleventh Doctor- So we can't just go down and talk to them because like it was stated earlier he is me and I am him and that includes the little guy down there

Romana II- I think that is the only thing we can do in this situation

Then reluctantly both Doctors agree and they all head down to talk to the Second Doctor and his companions

Episode II

Intro starts Doctor Who The Ripple In Time Intro

As the Doctors and companions are walking over to the Second Doctor near the tomb entrance

Romana II asks Amy and Rory

Romana II- So when are you from

Amy- What do you mean

Romana II- I guess I should have been more specific

Romana II- What year are you two from?

Amy and Rory both say- 2010

Romana II- Wow!!!

Rory- Wow what?

Romana II- I have never met anyone from that earth decade before that's all

Fourth Doctor- Can we please focus on what is important right now

Amy- Oh lighten up Doctor

Amy- She is just asking a question

Fourth Doctor- I know.....

Then the Eleventh Doctor cuts the Fourth Doctor off

Eleventh Doctor- I almost forgot to tell you all don't tell anyone future events or things we have done.

Fourth Doctor- Also don't let them know where or when you are from because we have no idea what effect this could have on the whole of time and space

Then it cuts back to the Second Doctor and his companions

Jamie- I think they are here

Second Doctor- How can they be here so fast

Jamie- I don't know but you can ask them yourself because they are right behind you

Second Doctor- Who are you

Eleventh Doctor- My friends and I are travelers and we seem to have gone a bit off course

Second Doctor- I wish I could help but I really must get in to the tomb so I can help them

Amy- Well come on Doctor

Amy- If he can't help then we will just have to figure this out ourselves

Second Doctor- Why did she just call you doctor

Then seconds later it dawns on the Second Doctor

Second Doctor- Are you me

The Eleventh Doctor ponders for a moment if he should tell his former self that he is him from later in his timeline

Then reluctantly the Eleventh Doctor whispers to the Second Doctor

Eleventh Doctor- Yes and so is the one with the boffy hair

Second Doctor- How can this be?

Eleventh Doctor- That is what we are trying to figure out

Then Jamie and Victoria walk over and Jamie asks

Jamie- So who is your new friend

Second Doctor- How can I make this simple for you

Eleventh Doctor- I think I can

Eleventh Doctor- He is me and I am him

Eleventh Doctor- Oh and the one with the boffy hair is also me

Jamie- How can this be Doctor

Second Doctor- I don't know

Victoria- Are you sure

Eleventh Doctor- Yes I am sure and what we need to focus on is how I am here
