

What do we actually call democratic education?

Charlie Moreno-Romero makes a short historical overview of DE. I points out the main characteristics. he also mentions some of possibilities worldwide (ALC, Sudbury, school within the school, etc..)

Dorianne de Groot, chair of EUDEC presents the organisation and the way EUDEC is involved in supporting and promoting democratic education in Europe and world wide.

Guilain Omont, member of EUDEC council explains the new structure of EUDEC.