

Renee Mueller (Choreographer)

Renee holds a BFA in dance and choreography from the University of Michigan. Renee was the founder and Artistic Director of Dance Alliance Repertory Company and Artistic Director for Jazz Dance Theatre. She has been a guest teacher at Interlochen Center for the Arts, Geiger Classic Ballet, Midland Dance Festival, and Bonn Germany International Dance Intensive. Renee has taught dance at the University of Michigan's prestigious Musical Theater Department and the University's Theater Department. She has danced professionally and was a founding member of the Peter Sparling Dance Company. Most recently, Renee has choreographed for Young People's Theater's "The Hunchback of Notre Dame, The Drowsy Chaperone, Matilda, and is excited to work with Caroline Huntoon, Jenn Monk-Reising, Eddie VanRiper, Cinderella Ksebati, Ane Richter, and the incredible cast of Into The Woods.